

Chapter 1 : Interesting Facts | HubPages

Prime Book Box for Kids. Story time just got better with Prime Book Box, a subscription that delivers hand-picked children's books every 1, 2, or 3 months.

Most soccer players run 7 miles in a game. The only 2 animals that can see behind itself without turning its head are the rabbit and the parrot. Whip makes a cracking sound because its tip moves faster than the speed of sound. It cost 7 million dollars to build the Titanic and million to make a film about it. When hippos are upset, their sweat turns red. Every time you sneeze some of your brain cells die. Your left lung is smaller than your right lung to make room for your heart. Laughing lowers levels of stress hormones and strengthens the immune system. Six-year-olds laugh an average of times a day. Adults only laugh 15 to times a day. Chewing gum while peeling onions will keep you from crying. Never hold your nose and cover your mouth when sneezing, as it can blow out your eyeballs. In ancient Greece, children of wealthy families were dipped in olive oil at birth to keep them hairless throughout their lives. Every Labrador retriever dreams about bananas once in a while. Approximately one-sixth of your life is spent on Wednesdays. You can actually sharpen the blades on a pencil sharpener by wrapping your pencils in aluminum foil before inserting them. A cockroach can live several weeks with its head cut off. A company in Taiwan makes dinnerware out of wheat, so you can eat your plate. A cow produces times more gas a day than a person. A dime has ridges around the edge. A dragonfly has a lifespan of 24 hours. A giraffe can clean its ears with its inch tongue. A giraffe can go without water longer than a camel can. A goldfish has a memory span of three seconds. A pregnant goldfish is called a twit. A shark is the only fish that can blink with both eyes. A quarter has grooves on its edge, a dime has one less groove. America once issued a 5-cent bill. An iguana can stay under water for 28 minutes. Bats always turn left when exiting a cave. Pigs love the stuff, except for one flavor: Dolphins sleep with one eye open. If a statue in the park of a person on a horse has both front legs in the air, the person died in battle; if the horse has one front leg in the air, the person died as a result of wounds received in battle; if the horse has all four legs on the ground, the person died of natural causes. If you toss a penny 10, times, it will not be heads 5, times, but more like 4, The heads picture weighs more, so it ends up on the bottom. In most advertisements, including newspapers, the time displayed on a watch is More Monopoly money is printed in a year, than real money printed throughout the world. More people are killed annually by donkeys than die in air crashes. More people use blue toothbrushes, than red ones. Most cows give more milk when they listen to music. Most dust particles in your house are made from dead skin. Most lipstick contains fish scales. Over birds a year die from smashing into windows. Owls are one of the only birds who can see the color blue. The average person falls asleep in seven minutes. The average person has over 1, dreams a year. The average person is about a quarter of an inch taller at night. The only 15 letter word that can be spelled without repeating a letter is uncopyrightable. There are ways to make change for a dollar. There are dimples on a regulation golf ball. There are over There are more chickens than people in the world. There are more plastic flamingos in America than real ones. There are only thirteen blimps in the world. Nine of them are in the United States. When snakes are born with two heads, they fight each other for food. Windmills always turn counter-clockwise. Except for the windmills in Ireland. The sound of E. The state of Florida is bigger than England. The national anthem of Greece has verses. No one in Greece has memorized all verses. The oldest known goldfish lived to 41 years of age. Its name was Fred. The giant squid has the largest eyes in the world. The glue on Israeli postage stamps is certified kosher. The highest point in Pennsylvania is lower than the lowest point in Colorado. The housefly hums in the middle octave, key of F. The international telephone dialing code for Antarctica is The katydid bug hears through holes in its hind legs. Bean stands for Leon Leonwood. The longest recorded flight of a chicken is thirteen seconds. The longest word in the English language, according to the Oxford English Dictionary, is pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis. The only other word with the same amount of letters is pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconioses, its plural. The Main Library at Indiana University sinks over an inch every year because when it was built, engineers failed to take into account the weight of all the books that would occupy the building. The Boston University Bridge on Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts is the only place in the world where a boat can sail under a train driving under a car driving under an airplane. The condom was made originally of linen and was invented in the early 1800s. The cruise liner, Queen Elizabeth II, moves only six inches for each gallon of diesel that it burns. The Earth weighs around 6,000,000,000,000,000 tons. The Eisenhower interstate system requires that one mile in every five must be straight. These straight sections are usable as airstrips in times of war or other emergencies. The electric chair was invented by a dentist. The first Ford cars had Dodge engines.

Chapter 2 : Facts - Amazing Facts You Didn't Know!

Note: Citations are based on reference standards. However, formatting rules can vary widely between applications and fields of interest or study. The specific requirements or preferences of your reviewing publisher, classroom teacher, institution or organization should be applied.

By the s, chronic overfarming in the Great Plains had devastated the native grasses that had held topsoils in place. As the plants were uprooted, the dirt dried and loosened, setting the stage for an environmental catastrophe. In , a drought hit the regionâ€”it would last eight yearsâ€”and the exposed soil was blown away by a series of gigantic dust storms. Nobody who lived there had ever experienced anything like it: Many well-meaning citizens assumed that if they could just cover up the loose dirt somehow, it would stop getting blown around so much. Five dollars per acre. Sounds like a bargainâ€”until you consider the fact that the dust bowl had engulfed around million acres. Meanwhile, a Pittsburgh steel manufacturer wanted to install wire netting over multiple counties, and a company known as Sisalkraft proposed blanketing the ground with its rugged brand of waterproof paper. A similar idea involved laying concrete down over every field in the region and leaving a few holes for future crops. As environmental historian Donald Worster wrote in his book Dust Bowl: Yearby of Durham, North Carolina saw an opportunity to beautify her own state by shipping its junked autos out to the plains to anchor the blowing fields. Getty Images Explosives expert Tex Thornton tried ending the drought with dynamite. In a sales pitch given to the citizens of Dalhart, Texas, he explained that if the explosive was launched skywards and detonated aurally, immediate rainfall would follow. Judgment day came on May 1, , when the would-be hero set up shop by a local lake. Thousands of curious onlookers watched from afar as Thornton tied balloons to his dynamite sticks, which had been fitted with timed fuses. Things quickly went awry once a violent dust storm arrived on the scene. The high winds made it too dangerous for Thornton to even think about releasing the explosives, especially now that a crowd was present. So in a last-ditch effort to deliver the goods, he buried his dynamite and set it off under the ground. The blast just propelled extra dirt into the dusty atmosphere. After a few more attempts, rain did come to Dalhartâ€”as well as in regions too far away to be affected by his explosions. Contemporary folklore claimed that if you hung a deceased snake belly-up over a fence post, it would rain the next morning. When all else failed, some farmers actually tried this during the dust bowl years. Ironically, live snakes would have been far more useful to them. Back then, famished jackrabbits regularly turned up in droves to devour the few crops that were still being grown on the Great Plains. Many of the more intense showdowns in the American Civil War, including Gettysburg, were followed by severe rainfall. This and other accounts over the years helped give rise to the once widespread belief that artillery caused downpours â€”a notion that was still fairly pervasive in the s and was broadly the same hypothesis that Thornton was working with. After some non-lethal cannon fire, the rains would returnâ€”or at least, that was the plan. This story originally ran in

Watch an awesome the Weird But True! video. Follow Charlie Engelman, the host of "Weird But True!", as he walks through a maze of facts that have come to life at National Geographic headquarters.

I have compiled a list of over odd facts—some believable, others unbelievable, and some that are just plain bizarre. If you have time to read them all, let me know which one is your favorite. Retired basketball sensation Michael Jordan makes more money from Nike each year than all the Nike factory workers in Malaysia combined. This is because at least one of those colors appears on the flag of every nation on the planet. The average lifespan of a major league baseball: Dueling is legal in Paraguay as long as both parties are registered blood donors. All major league baseball umpires must wear black underwear while on the job in case their pants split. In 1925, Babe Ruth out-homered every American League team. Babe Ruth wore a cabbage leaf under his cap to keep his head cool. He changed it every two innings. Every year 56 million people attend major league baseball games. In 18th century England, gambling dens employed someone whose job was to swallow the dice if there was a police raid. There are dimples on a regulation golf ball. The star Antares is 60,000 times larger than our sun. If our sun were the size of a softball, the star Antares would be as large as a house. In Calama, a town in the Atacama Desert of Chile, it has never rained. Erosion at the base of Niagara Falls has caused the falls to recede approximately seven miles over the past 10,000 years. A ten-year-old mattress weighs double what it did when it was new due to debris that it absorbs over time. That debris includes dust mites their droppings and decaying bodies, mold, millions of dead skin cells, dandruff, animal and human hair, secretions, excretions, lint, pollen, dust, soil, sand, and a lot of perspiration, which the average person loses at a rate of a quart a day. Every year 16 million gallons of oil runs off pavement into streams, rivers, and eventually, oceans in the United States. This is more oil than was spilled by the Exxon Valdez. Most lipstick contains fish scales. A "jiffy" is an actual unit of time: Leonardo Da Vinci invented scissors. Recycling one glass jar saves enough energy to operate a television for three hours. The cigarette lighter was invented before the match. The main library at Indiana University sinks over an inch a year. When it was designed engineers failed to take into account the weight of all the books that would occupy the building. There is enough fuel in full jumbo jet tank to drive an average car four times around the world. An average of people choke to death on ballpoint pens every year. Antarctica is the only continent without reptiles or snakes. The cruise liner Queen Elizabeth 2 moves only six inches for each gallon of fuel it burns. San Francisco cable cars are the only National Monuments that can move. February is the only month in recorded history not to have a full moon. Nutmeg is extremely poisonous if injected intravenously. A rainbow can be seen only in the morning or late afternoon. It can occur only when the sun is 40 degrees or less above the horizon. Lightning strikes the Earth times every second. La Paz, Bolivia has an average annual temperature below 50 degrees Fahrenheit. However, it has never recorded a zero-degree temperature. There are over 87,000 Americans on waiting lists for organ transplants. Catsup leaves the bottle at a rate of 25 miles per year. Toxic house plants poison more children than household chemicals do. You are more likely to be infected by flesh-eating bacteria than you are to be struck by lightning. According to Genesis 1: It is physically impossible for you to lick your own elbow. Your heart beats over 100,000 times a day. It takes approximately 12 hours for food to entirely digest. A sneeze travels out your mouth at over 100 mph. Women blink nearly twice as often as men. Most of the dust particles in your house are dead skin. There are more living organisms on the skin of a single human being than there are human beings on the surface of the earth. The longest bout of hiccups lasted nearly 69 years. Babies are born without kneecaps. They appear between the ages of 2 and 6. Men can read smaller print than women. Women can hear better. Wearing headphones for just an hour will increase the bacteria in your ear by times. If you sneeze too hard you can fracture a rib. If you try to suppress a sneeze you can rupture a blood vessel in your head or neck and die. If you keep your eyes open by force they can pop out. A kiss stimulates 29 muscles and chemicals that cause relaxation. Women seem to like light and frequent kisses while men like them more strenuous. Our eyes are always the same size from birth, but our nose and ears never stop growing. The average person falls asleep in seven minutes. Almost everyone who reads this will try to lick their elbow. According to Chinese acupuncture, there is a point on the head that you can press to control your appetite. It is located in the hollow just in front of the flap of the ear. In a recent survey, Americans revealed that banana was their favorite smell. They actually pass out from sheer terror. The two-foot long bird called a Kea that lives in New Zealand likes to eat the strips of rubber around car windows. Snakes are true carnivores as they eat nothing but other animals. They do not eat any type of plant material. The Weddell seal can travel underwater for seven miles without surfacing for air. An iguana can stay under water for 28 minutes. Crocodiles and alligators are surprisingly fast on land. Although they are rapid, they are not agile, so if you ever find yourself chased by one, run in a zigzag line. A crocodile cannot stick its tongue out. Butterflies taste with their feet. Penguins can jump as high as six feet in the air. All polar bears are left-handed. An eagle can kill a young deer and fly carrying it. It was discovered on a space mission that a frog can throw up. The frog vomits its entire stomach out so the organ is dangling out of its mouth. The leg bones of a bat are so thin that no bat can walk. The katydid bug hears through holes in its hind legs. Slugs have four noses. Ostriches stick their heads in the sand to look for water. In a study of , ostriches over a period of 80 years there were no reported cases of an ostrich burying its head in the sand. A snail can sleep for three years. Some dogs can predict when a child will have an epileptic seizure and even protect the child from injury. A pregnant goldfish is called a twit. Rats multiply so quickly that in 18 months, two rats could have over a million descendants. There are only three types of snakes on the island of Tasmania and all three are deadly poisonous. It is physically impossible for pigs to look up into the sky. Dolphins sleep with one eye open. A goldfish has a memory span of three seconds. A shark is the only fish that can blink with both eyes. Emus and kangaroos cannot walk backwards and are on the Australian coat of arms for that reason.

Chapter 4 : Amazing Facts Everyone Should Know | Mental Floss

Read Random Facts from the story Interesting Facts by Readers_Secret (ChloÃ©) with 11, reads. spiders, mustread, herobrine. Heyy!! I have this app on my.

I have collected these random facts from various sources on the internet like Wikipedia , so they may or may not be true. Now please proceed to reading these interesting random bits. Over Extremely Interesting Facts Butterflies cannot fly if their body temperature is less than 86 degrees. Neurons multiply at a rate , neurons per minute during early pregnancy. Elephants have the longest pregnancy in the animal kingdom at 22 months. The longest human pregnancy on record is 17 months, 11 days. A female oyster produces million young in her lifetime, the typical hen lays 19 dozen eggs a year, and it is possible for one female cat to be responsible for the birth of 20, kittens in four years. Michelle Druggar holds the record for largest human family, having given birth to 17 children. Dragonflies are capable of flying sixty miles per hour, making them one of the fastest insects. This is good since they are in a big hurry, as they only live about twenty-four hours. Flies jump backwards during takeoff. A housefly will regurgitate its food and eat it again. Termites outweigh humans by almost ten to one. They are as individual as snowflakes, with no two ever being the same. Some tropical spiders have built webs over eighteen feet across. More people are afraid of spiders than death. Amazingly, few people are afraid of Champagne corks even though you are more likely to be killed by one than by a spider. This amount of energy is enough to illuminate a lightbulb. It is impossible to lick your elbow. Intelligent people have more zinc and copper in their hair. In every episode of Seinfeld there is a Superman somewhere. Possums have one of the shortest pregnancies at 16 days. The shortest human pregnancy to produce a healthy baby was 22 weeks, 6 days -- the baby was the length of a ballpoint pen. Wearing headphones for just an hour will increase the bacteria in your ear by times. The most poisonous spider is the black widow. Some Case Moth caterpillars Psychidae build a case around themselves that they always carry with them. It is made of silk and pieces of plants or soil. Most household dust is made of dead skin cells. One in eight million people has progeria, a disease that causes people to grow faster than they age. The male seahorse carries the eggs until they hatch instead of the female. Negative emotions such as anxiety and depression can weaken your immune system. Stephen Hawking was born exactly years after Galileo died. Mercury is the only planet whose orbit is coplanar with its equator. They must live on the energy they stored as caterpillars. In Entomologist W. Bruce published a list of Arthropod references in the Bible. The most frequently named bugs from the Bible are: People eat insects â€” called "Entomophagy" people eating bugs â€” it has been practiced for centuries throughout Africa, Australia, Asia, the Middle East, and North, Central and South America. Because many bugs are both protein-rich and good sources of vitamins, minerals and fats. Grapes explode when you put them in the microwave. Go on, try it then Ramses brand condom is named after the great pharaoh Ramses II who fathered over children. Peanuts are one of the ingredients of dynamite. In New York, it is perfectly legal to shoot a Scotsman with a bow and arrow except on Sundays No piece of square dry paper can be folded in half more than 7 times The average human eats 8 spiders in their lifetime at night. The Beetham Tower has 47 floors. An average human loses about head hairs per day. In France, a five year old child can buy an alcoholic drink in a bar During the chariot scene in "Ben Hur," a small red car can be seen in the distance. By raising your legs slowly and lying on your back, you cannot sink into quicksand. The glue on Israeli postage is certified kosher. On average, people choke to death on ball-point pens every year. Thirty-five percent of the people who use personal ads for dating are already married. The electric chair was invented by a dentist. The top butterfly flight speed is 12 miles per hour. Some moths can fly 25 miles per hour! The Brimstone butterfly Gonepteryx rhamni has the longest lifetime of the adult butterflies: Bruce Lee was so fast that they actually had to s-l-o-w film down so you could see his moves. Representations of butterflies are seen in Egyptian frescoes at Thebes, which are 3, years old. Babies are born without knee caps. Some people say that when the black bands on the Woollybear caterpillar are wide, a cold winter is coming. Americans on the average eat 18 acres of pizza every day. Banging your head against a wall uses calories an hour. Almonds are a member of the peach family. The plastic things on the end of shoelaces are called aglets. The average shelf-life of a latex condom is about two years. Male bats have the highest rate of homosexuality of any mammal. A man will ejaculate approximately 18 quarts of semen in his lifetime. Sex is biochemically no different from eating large quantities of chocolate. Humans and dolphins are the only species that have sex for pleasure. US Dollar bills are made out of cotton and linen. The 57 on the Heinz ketchup bottle represents the number of pickle types the company once had. Giraffes and rats can last longer without water than camels. The Declaration of Independence was written on hemp marijuana paper. Benjamin Franklin was the fifth in a series of the youngest son of the youngest son. Triskaidekaphobia means fear of the number 13. Paraskevidekatriaphobia means fear of Friday the 13th, which occurs one to three times a year. In Italy, 17 is considered an unlucky number. In Japan, 4 is considered an unlucky number. A female ferret will die if it goes into heat and cannot find a mate. In ancient Rome, when a man testified in court he would swear on his testicles. Coca-Cola contained Coca whose active ingredient is cocaine from to He was an albino. On average, 12 newborns will be given to the wrong parents every day. Warren Beatty and Shirley McLaine are brother and sister. Chocolate can kill dogs; it directly affects their heart and nervous system. Daniel Boone hated coonskin caps. Most lipstick contains fish scales. Slugs have four noses. Ketchup was sold in the s as medicine. India has a Bill of Rights for cows. There are 3,360 possible combinations of the first four moves in Chess. There are no clocks in Las Vegas gambling casinos. Coconuts kill about 100 people each year. Half of all bank robberies take place on a Friday. The name Wendy was made up for the book Peter Pan. There was never a recorded Wendy before it. The international telephone dialing code for Antarctica is 67. The average raindrop falls at 7 miles per hour. If you put a drop of liquor on a scorpion, it will instantly go mad and sting itself to death. Bruce Lee was so fast that they had to slow the film down so you could see his moves. The original name for butterfly was flutterby.

Chapter 5 : Interesting Facts - Random - Fanpop

Over Extremely Interesting Facts Butterflies cannot fly if their body temperature is less than 86 degrees. Neurons multiply at a rate , neurons per minute during early pregnancy.

Most American car horns honk in the key of F. The name Wendy was made up for the book "Peter Pan. The average person falls asleep in seven minutes. Studies show that if a cat falls off the seventh floor of a building it has about thirty percent less chance of surviving than a cat that falls off the twentieth floor. It supposedly takes about eight floors for the cat to realize what is occurring, relax and correct itself. Your stomach has to produce a new layer of mucus every 2 weeks otherwise it will digest itself. Reindeer like to eat bananas. No word in the English language rhymes with month, orange, silver and purple. The word "samba" means "to rub navels together. The electric chair was invented by a dentist. More people are killed annually by donkeys than airplane crashes. Because of the rotation of the earth, an object can be thrown farther if it is thrown west. The average person spends 6 months of their life sitting at red lights. In a law passed in Nebraska where drivers in the country at night were required to stop every yards, send up a skyrocket, wait eight minutes for the road to clear before proceeding cautiously, all the while blowing their horn and shooting off flares. More Monopoly money is printed in a year, than real money throughout the world. Caesar salad has nothing to do with any of the Caesars. One quarter of the bones in your body are in your feet. Crocodiles and alligators are surprisingly fast on land. Although they are rapid, they are not agile. So, if being chased by one, run in a zigzag line to lose him or her. Right-handed people live, on average; nine years longer than left handed people. In the United States, a pound of potato chips costs two hundred times more than a pound of potatoes. A giraffe can go without water longer than a camel. A person cannot taste food unless it is mixed with saliva. For example, if a strong-tasting substance like salt is placed on a dry tongue, the taste buds will not be able to taste it. As soon as a drop of saliva is added and the salt is dissolved, however, a definite taste sensation results. This is true for all foods. In the marriage ceremony of the ancient Inca Indians of Peru, the couple was considered officially wed when they took off their sandals and handed them to each other. Ninety percent of all species that have become extinct have been birds. There is approximately one chicken for every human being in the world. The first automobile race ever seen in the United States was held in Chicago in The track ran from Chicago to Evanston, Illinois. The winner was J. Each of us generates about 3. A rainbow can be seen only in the morning or late afternoon. It can occur only when the sun is 40 degrees or less above the horizon. It costs more to buy a new car today in the United States than it cost Christopher Columbus to equip and undertake three voyages to and from the New World. The plastic things on the end of shoelaces are called aglets. An eighteenth-century German named Matthew Birchinger, known as "the little man of Nuremberg," played four musical instruments including the bagpipes, was an expert calligrapher, and was the most famous stage magician of his day. He performed tricks with the cup and balls that have never been explained. Yet Birchinger had no hands, legs, or thighs, and was less than 29 inches tall. Daylight Saving Time is not observed in most of the state of Arizona and parts of Indiana. Ants closely resemble human manners: Bees have 5 eyes. Count the number of cricket chirps in a second period, add 37 to the total, and your result will be very close to the actual outdoor Fahrenheit temperature. Butterflies taste with their hind feet. If one places a tiny amount of liquor on a scorpion, it will instantly go mad and sting itself to death. It is illegal to hunt camels in the state of Arizona. In eighteenth-century English gambling dens, there was an employee whose only job was to swallow the dice if there was a police raid. There are no clocks in Las Vegas gambling casinos. The human tongue tastes bitter things with the taste buds toward the back. Salty and pungent flavors are tasted in the middle of the tongue, sweet flavors at the tip! In , fashionable women of Paris never went out in blustery weather without a lightning rod attached to their hats. Sex burns calories per hour. Celery has negative calories! It takes more calories to eat a piece of celery than the celery has in it. The average lead pencil will draw a line 35 miles long or write approximately 50, English words. More than 2 billion pencils are manufactured each year in the United States. If these were laid end to end they would circle the world nine times. The pop you hear when you crack your knuckles is actually a bubble of gas burning. A literal translation of a standard traffic sign in China: Larry

Lewis ran the yard dash in . In a lifetime the average human produces enough quarts of spit to fill 2 swimming pools. The human heart creates enough pressure to squirt blood 30ft. One third of all cancers are sun related. Most Egyptians died by the time they were 30 about years ago, For some time Frederic Chopin, the composer and pianist, wore a beard on only one side of his face, explaining: A pregnant goldfish is called a twit. The shortest war in history was between Zanzibar and England in . Zanzibar surrendered after 38 minutes. If you go blind in one eye you only lose about one fifth of your vision but all your sense of depth. Women blink nearly twice as much as men. The strongest muscle Relative to size in the body is the tongue. A palindrome is a sentence or group of sentences that reads the same backwards as it does forward: It was estimated to save the nation about , barrels of oil each year by adding most of the month April to D. The thumbnail grows the slowest, the middle nail the fastest, nearly 4 times faster than toenails. The Human eyes never grow, but nose and ears never stop growing. The 57 on Heinz ketchup bottles represents the number of varieties of pickles the company once had. If Texas were a country, its GNP would be the fifth largest of any country in the world. There are 1 million ants for every human in the world. Odds of being killed by lightening? All this while trying to shake merchandise out of them. Half the foods eaten throughout the world today were developed by farmers in the Andes Mountains including potatoes, maize, sweet potatoes, squash, all varieties of beans, peanuts, manioc, papayas, strawberries, mulberries and many others. Former basketball superstar Michael Jordan is the most recognized face in the world, more than the pope himself. The average talker sprays about microscopic saliva droplets per minute, about 2. The Earth experiences 50, Earth quakes per year and is hit by Lightning times a second. Every year 11, Americans injure themselves while trying out bizarre sexual positions. If we had the same mortality rate now as in , more than half the people in the world today would not be alive. On average, Americans eat 18 acres of pizza everyday. The accumulated burps of ten average cows could keep a small house adequately heated and its stove operating for a year. During a severe windstorm or rainstorm the Empire State Building sways several feet to either side. In the last 3, years, there have been approximately years of peace throughout the civilized world. The Black Death reduced the population of Europe by one third in the period from to . The average person spends about two years on the phone in a lifetime. Length of beard an average man would grow if he never shaved . A full-loaded supertanker traveling at normal speed takes at least 20 minutes to stop. Coca-Cola was originally green. Men can read smaller print than women; women can hear better. Average number of days a West German goes without washing his underwear: If the pilots fired all their ammo at a target, he went through "the whole 9 yards", hence the term.

Chapter 6 : blog.quintoapp.com Humor Mostly Useless Facts

Fun Facts II () The average American/Canadian drinks about sodas a year. Cats sweat through the pads of their feet (especially when they hear a dog barking) and cannot taste sweet things.

BY Jason English March 6, 1. In , an Australian man tried to sell New Zealand on eBay. There was a third Apple founder. In Japan, letting a sumo wrestler make your baby cry is considered good luck. During WWI, German measles were called "liberty measles" and dachshunds became "liberty hounds. When three-letter airport codes became standard, airports that had been using two letters simply added an X. Nutella was invented during WWII, when an Italian pastry maker mixed hazelnuts into chocolate to extend his chocolate ration. In response to The Lorax, the forest products industry published Truax to teach kids the importance of logging. Tsutomu Yamaguchi was in Hiroshima for work when the first A-bomb hit, made it home to Nagasaki for the second, and lived to be A British man changed his name to Tim Pppppppppprice to make it harder for telemarketers to pronounce. No one solved the mystery. Prairie dogs say hello with kisses. A search for the Loch Ness Monster came up empty. Scientists did find over , golf balls. Jonas Salk declined to patent his polio vaccine. Sedona, AZ thought yellow clashed with the natural red rock. The star American flag was designed by an Ohio high school student for a class project. His teacher originally gave him a Bâ€”. After leaving office, Lyndon Johnson let his hair grow out. Crabs have their own version of the fist pump. Male crabs wave their claws in the air to attract females. Sean Connery turned down the Gandalf role in Lord of the Rings. I read the script. I saw the movie. Classical musicians played to aid his digestion. The term "Frito Feet" was coined to describe the scent. Barry Manilow did not write his hit "I Write the Songs. Officials in Portland, Ore. The medical term for ice cream headaches is sphenopalatine ganglioneuralgia. Peeps Lip Balm is something that exists. Sleeping through winter is hibernation, while sleeping through summer is estivation. Clean is known as Don Limpio. Researchers hoping to view them must sign a disclaimer. In , the U. How many licks does it take to get to the center of a Tootsie Pop? The world may never know. But on average, a Licking Machine made at Purdue needed Fredric Baur invented the Pringles can. When he passed away in , his ashes were buried in one. The first webcam watched a coffee pot. It allowed researchers at Cambridge to monitor the coffee situation without leaving their desks. The last time a Republican was elected president without a Nixon or Bush on the ticket was Nikola Tesla on Thomas Edison: Kentucky tweaked its Wildcat logo in after people complained the tongue was too phallic. In , Detroit presented Saddam Hussein with a key to the city. Just before the Nazis invaded Paris, H. They were carrying the manuscript for Curious George. In Super Mario Bros. When fruit flies are infected with a parasite, they self-medicate with boozeâ€”they seek out food with higher alcohol content. Crayola means "oily chalk. In , Columbus thought he saw mermaids. They were "not as pretty as they are depicted, for somehow in the face they look like men. People in town refused to repair them. Bob Ross on his Air Force career: Cookie Monster is not changing his name. In , Apple launched a clothing line. Between and , Tug of War was an Olympic event.

Chapter 7 : Interesting Science Facts “ Zarius

The Fact Site is the number one source for the most interesting & random facts about animals, celebrities, food, films, games & so much more. You will learn something about everything! Keep up to date with our favorite facts, newest lists & a whole bunch of random information.

Fun Facts I 1 - 25 1. Ancient Egyptian priests would pluck every hair from their bodies. For a short distance, the bluefin tuna can swim 50 miles per hour. The first American satellite in orbit, Explorer I, was launched February 1 , At the Winter Olympic Games, Walt Disney was head of the committee that organized the opening day ceremonies. S have sever, or extreme pollution problems. Buttermilk does not contain any Butter. The largest item on any menu in the world is probably the roast camel, sometimes served at Bedouin wedding feasts. Baseball is the only sport that looks backwards in a mirror. A whip makes a cracking sound because its tip moves faster than the speed of sound. Avacados are poisonous to birds. China has more English speakers than United States. Cleopatra married two of her brothers. On Average, a baby in the united States will eat fifteen pounds of cereal in their first year of life. There are , detectable earthquakes in the world each year. An Athens legislator named Solon passed a law in the 6th century that let fathers sell their fornicating daughters into slavery. At the age of 26, Michelangelo began sculpting his monumental statue of David. He finished it seventeen months later, in January, American and Russian space flights have always included chocolate. Robert Wadlow is regarded as the tallest man ever known. Camel milk does not curdle. There is a doggy disco held in Italy every year where owners can dance with their dogs. The record for the most weddings is held by King Mogul of Siam, who had weddings and wives. Benjamin Franklin was offended about putting a bald eagle as the national bird because he thought that other people were trying to make fun of him, since he was bald. Cats sweat through the pads of their feet especially when they hear a dog barking and cannot taste sweet things. The average annual low for South pole is , compared with -3 at the North pole. The lowest temperature ever recorded at the South Pole is , while the record at the North Pole is A pound of potato chips costs times more than a pound of raw potatoes. An ear of corn always has an even number of rows because of the genetic formula which divides the cell. Canola Oil is actually rapeseed oil but the name was changed for marketing reasons. A human eyeball weighs an ounce. Hypnotism is banned by public schools in San Diego. The city with more Rolls Royce per capita: A snail can actually glide over the sharp edge of a knife or razor without harming itself. Price Charles and Price William never travel in the same airplane in case there is a crash. A bibliophile is a collector of rare books. A bibliopole is a seller of rare books. Starfish have eight eyes, one at the end of each leg. In Alderson, West Virginia, it is illegal to walk a lion, tiger or leopard in the city limits, even if it is on a leash. The two lines that connect your top lip to the bottom of your nose are called philtrum. Bees can see ultraviolet light. Brazil is the location of the worlds widest road. Pumpkins contain potassium and Vitamin A. In its ancient form, the carrot was purple, not orange. The phone number to the white house is: The longest name in the Bible is Mahershalalbaz. Babies are born without kneecaps. The name of the dog on the Cracker jack Box is Bingo. The Sears Tower in Chicago contains enough steel to build 50, automobiles. The population of the American colonies in was A single cup of gasoline, when ignited, has the same explosive power as five sticks of dynamite. The zebra is basically a light-colored animal with black stripes. Natural pearls melt in Vinegar. As of , there were 1. Keeping you car tuned up is a good way to save on gas. It takes about 63, trees to make the newsprint for the average Sunday edition of New York Times. In Utah, a husband is responsible for all criminal acts committed by his wife while she is in his presence. It takes a drop of ocean water more than years to circulate around the world. Pucks his by hockey sticks have reached speeds of up to miles per hour. Honolulu, Hawai boasts the only royal palace in US. In India, Pajamas are accepted as standard daytime wearing apparel. Streets in Japan do not have names.

Chapter 8 : Random Fun Facts You might Find Interesting + Interesting Videos | HubPages

AMAZING facts on the arctic. you actually made me exited about my HOMEWORK!!!!!! Philippa I love this website

although, it didnt fulfil the needs of my general homework- as I needed more information in a specific topic.

Chapter 9 : Over Fun, Odd Facts Most People Don't Know | Owlcation

Facts books are non fiction books for kids, full of amazing facts, images and activities. Facts are ideal school and homework resources for children aged 6+.