by Sylvia Nasar; Amy Harmon; Richard Preston; Thomas Goetz; Carl Zimmer; Tara Parker-Pope; Gardiner Harris; Benedict Carey; Janet Roberts; Daniel J Carlat; Tina.

Scicomm pros seem to think we are starting from a clean slate and we just have to connect better. Chris Preston True, but it is even worse than this. Because you are attacking their belief system, they become very defensive and accuse you of all sorts of things. Disagreement with their assertions is treated as offensive. There really is no way to enlighten all people effectively without upsetting some of them. The best way is to simply present the evidence and keep presenting the evidence. Mike Adams is not perfect and he has his biases, like we all do, but he is NOT a liar. His intentions are honest. Articles by ordinary authors are typically inaccurate, even when the gist is right. His article on how he got a microscope and saw black flecks pepper on Chicken McNuggets proved that they were bad for is a pretty mundane example of this. Scott Low Adams only criticizes. He lacks the knowledge to produce meaningful commentary. You know that, yes? Well, then he is delusional. I really wonder if he just wants to be rich and famous. I mean you have people you congregate with, you have certain scientists whom you base your entire worldview on; you find your identity in it as well as many other aspects of life. How is it not a belief system in and of itself? Can you give an example of what you mean? But science as it relates to a Materialist world view. Or the idea that the only things that exist is that in the natural world that we can experience with our 5 senses and or is physical. No, but it is obvious that the desperate will whatever they have to to try to dismiss science. And most of it is crap nowadays. And a bit projective. It does a good enough of a job at that themselves. NManning Just because you cannot understand it is no reason to reject it. And the arrogance and mockery of anybody outside the club, to me, deligitimizes many aspects of their long held beliefs. However when these here talk they offer no evidence or even appear to offer evidenceâ€”yet the one criticized constantly gives reasons for his teachings. I will take the word of the one who gives reason over the critics who give none. His reasons are that he wants your money. Show me on rational explanation Adams has ever given. Feather Good to be reminded of this. There is no talking to some people. Just lost a friend over this kind of thingâ€“. John Keen mainstream media are the misinformers!! But as I told my wife, just remember that Dr. Oz shares a name with a famous wizard, and is only slightly more reputable. I always find it interesting how evolution has lead to so many dark corners in the human psyche. Great links, too [Page 1](http://First Officer Did he poke his eye out yet with that machine? He is a homophobic, sexist monster who, in the name of science controls the lives of millions by poisoning their minds. I will do my part by dedicating the online and paper man hours required to shut him down once and for all. Please, if you have the same goal or are in the process and need an extra free hand, please, do not hesitate to contact me at jeffahlstrom1 gmail. Goosebumps This guy is a scam. I just read a blog by him in which he was bashing the preservative methylisozolinone. He correctly stated it is a neurotoxin. I am highly allergic. It gives me chemical burns! In the next breath he proclaimed to by Seventh Generation which is full of MI and one of the biggest scams of all. Get the word out! I do not agree with everything Mike Adams believes, but for the most part he is the most honest altruist person on the planet. Integrity Integrity is having strong moral principles and core values and then conducting your life with those as your guide. When you have integrity, you main your adherence to it whether or not other people are watching. Honesty Honesty is more than telling the truth. It is being straightforward and trustworthy in all of your interactions, relationships, and thoughts. Being honest requires self-honesty and authenticity. Loyalty Loyalty is faithfulness and devotion to your loved ones, your friends, and anyone with whom you have a trusted relationship. Loyalty can also extend to your employer, the organizations you belong to, your community, and your country. Respectfulness You treat yourself and others with courtesy, kindness, deference, dignity, and civility. You offer basic respect as a sign of your value for the worth of all people and your ability to accept the inherent flaws we all possess. Responsibility You accept personal, relational, career, community, and societal obligations even when they are<div data-bbox=)

Reliability You can be consistently depended upon to follow through on your commitments, actions, and decisions. You do what you say you will do. Conscientiousness You have the desire to do things well or to the best of your ability. You are thorough, careful, efficient, organized, and vigilant in your efforts, based on your own principles or sense of what is right. Self-discipline You are able, through good habits or willpower, to overcome your desires or feelings in order to follow the best course of action or to rise to your commitments or principles. You have a strong sense of self-control in order to reach a desired goal. Is nothing about health anymore, except when he wants to sell his garbage food.. Put this clown in jail or lunatic house where he belongs. What did he say that caused you to say he is a lunatic? What garbage food does he sell? Give details as to what makes it garbage. And if you ain't in the club or if you dare buck the system, you are black balled or ridiculed out of science. Even when you follow the steps. No credibility an operation like that in my book. JOC He is absolutely the most annoying quack on the interwebs. Am I going to follow someone who calls himself the Health Ranger? Is it just a matter of natural medicine? A Mike Adams friendly all natural search engine. A bit too clever.
