For Economic Survey always study the latest Edition India will be a good one published by Government of India and is very very important from Exam point of view as questions are seen to be ask very frequently in prelims as well as in mains and is also important for Interview. In book by Goh Cheng Leong all the topics are well written specially the physical geography part, it makes your theoretical background strong and is also very important from exam point of view. But I think this book needs an update as some contents are obsolete, whereas as the theoretical knowledge will be the same so this book is very good and many civil service aspirants use to pick and recommend it. Comparing with the book by Majid Husain, this book is updated and all the topics are covered and also the Indian Geography part is well written and so I will like to pick this book. Other than this an Atlas is must to make your base strong and obviously without going through Youtube videos, you will find geography a very boring and so Youtube Videos are must for clearing your doubts and will also make this subject very interesting. But for Assam Culture more Study is required and so I suggest to do google search and prepare notes on them. It really makes a strong foundation on your vocabulary, makes you feel confidence to speak English, which is very important from exam point of view as well as interview. I will say you must read this book everyday. Coming to the point for Comprehension and Grammer all the books listed above are good one. Bakshi is also a good one and so you can pick any one of them based on your needs. For Reasoning and Quantitative Aptitude For Reasoning and Aptitude all the books listed above are important and good one but my personal choice for Aptitude will be a book by author Sarvesh K. Verma for Banking as well as for civil service exams. S Agarwal Although it is a good book but because as of now the competition level is very high and the quality of the questions in R. S Agarwal is quite easy but is a good book for beginners and so i suggest to go for the book by Sarvesh K. Verma for Quantitative Aptitude and if i would have rate it then i will give 9 out of 10 For Reasoning you can go for the book by B. Sijwalii which is good one and the level of the questions are also quite good and especially for Puzzles a book by author K. Kundan is a good one. Try to solve previous year question paper as much as you can. Time management is very important as you have to cover up your syllabus and revision is compulsory, if you are confused and stuck on a certain topic, then just skip that. So my best wishes are always with you and hope you find your dream job.
