Chapter 2 : I Dream of Genealogy Free Databases - Florida Marriages

The Clerk of Circuit Court is the issuing agent of marriage licenses for the State of Florida. All that is required for single adults to obtain a marriage license is for them to come in person to the Clerk's Office, bring their driver's license or other acceptable identification card and be prepared to pay the fee.

Submit one form to top-rated marriage officiants in your locality. You choose the best FL Wedding Officiant. Ask a Lawyer Online Now! Marriage Application Requirement Florida: Both applicants must be at least 18 years of age to apply without parental consent. If either applicant is under the age of 18 years but at least 16 years of age, a birth certificate and proof of identification is required, along with notarized written consent form of the parents or guardian. Applicants under 16 years of age must obtain a determination from a County Court Judge. A blood test is not required. A printed copy of the premarital course completion certificate must be presented to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for filing to receive the application fee reduction. This is required by law. Some locales may require an appointment. Marriage ID Requirement Florida: Both parties will also have to provide their Social Security numbers, but do not need to provide their Social Security Cards. You may be asked for a certified copy of your birth certificate. Marriage Waiting Period Florida: Florida Residents have a 3 day waiting period unless they meet the following criteria: If both parties are Florida Residents and have attended a 4 hour pre-marital course, they do not have a three day waiting period. Each applicant must provide proof of course completion when applying for the marriage license. All area course providers must be registered with the County Clerk of Courts per Florida Statute. If both parties are non-Florida Residents, you do not need to provide proof of pre-marital counseling. As non-residents of the State of Florida, you do not have a waiting period. However, all couples that apply for a marriage license must read the Family Law Handbook. The course must be completed no more than one year prior to the date of application for a marriage license. Both parties must attend the course and, once again, a certificate of completion must be presented at the time of application to be eligible for the discount. Marriage Residency Requirement Florida: You need not be a resident of Florida to apply for a marriage license in Bay County. Marriage Blood Test Florida: Blood Tests are not required. Marriage License Fees Florida: Preferred method of payment is cash. For guidance on additional methods of payment, please call ahead. Marriage Preparation Course Florida: As of January 1, , Florida residents who take a marriage preparation course offered by an approved provider can receive certain privileges. In addition, the three-day waiting period will be waived. Both partners must prove that they took the course within the last twelve months. A certificate of completion of an approved marriage preparation course given by a qualified instructor will be accepted as proof. Also, a letter from an official representative of a religious institution recognized under the Florida Statute will be accepted. Non-Florida residents are not entitled to the fee reduction for taking an approved marriage preparation course. However, if they have taken an accepted marriage preparation course, the three-day waiting period will be waived.
