He was a sacrifice. When He voluntarily gave His life on the cross some years ago He did not die for a cause. He died for people. Just before His death on Calvary, Jesus prayed for His disciples. Over 40 times in that prayer He made reference to His disciples. During the brief ministry Jesus had on earth, He had the world on His heart, but He saw the world through the eyes of His church. He sent them into the world to make disciples. The plan was simple: Paul relates it to Timothy in 2 Tim. The key to making disciples is faithful men and women. There is much written and many seminars concerning how to be better husbands, wives, parents, etc. Frequently in counseling a husband or wife will say to me, "I want to be a better marriage partner so my spouse will love me Our objective in life should be the same as presented in the Scriptures. Seek His kingdom, and His righteousness. If we will do that first. Then He will assume the responsibility for the rest of the things we need in life. Our vocations must never be our life objectives. No matter how wonderful and noble they may be, they are still temporal. A faithful man is a man who has chosen eternal objectives for his life. We need to be willing to pay any price to have the will of God fulfilled in our life. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. Paul advises Timothy not to get entangled with the affairs of the world. They can choke us if we allow them to Those who mind earthly things are the enemies of the cross! All that we hold dear; our family, our health, our jobs, our possessions, must be held with an open hand. Everything must belong to Jesus Christ, He must be free to do with us and take from us as He pleases. We must have a love for the Word of God. Does the Word have its rightful place in our life? In the life of any servant of God, the Word of God deserves the highest priority. We should never grow weary of its study. Does the Word of God have an active place in our life? It is our instruction manual for life and must be studied thoroughly. The kind of person that God wants us to be not only loves the Word, but they live the Word. We need to have the heart of a servant. Jesus was instructing His disciples, on the importance of serving others. Jesus exemplified that truth in everything that He did. He lived and died for others! The servant realizes the importance of the master. We must realize that truth and put no confidence in the flesh. The servant does not have an independ- ent spirit. Accomplishing the work of God is a team effort. He is looking for someone who has the heart of a servant. We need to have a love for people. To be godly is to be God-like. And to be like God is to love people. But Jesus came to redeem the people. The disciple is one who is involved in the lives of people. Many are defiled by bitterness springing up. Whether or not we have been wronged is immaterial; we must guard against bitterness in our lives. Have we made our life objectives those that are represented in the Scripture? Are we willing to pay the price to fulfill the will of God for our lives? Do we have a genuine love for the Word of God? Do we really have a love for people? If we are the kind of people God wants us to be, we can be used of God! If you are not a Christian, God wants you to be saved. Christian, God wants us to be faithful!
