

Chapter 1 : College State :: Search for Colleges based on Marching Band Activities - Mon Nov 12,

Our articles for college students feature university rankings of U.S. colleges, college guides, academic advice, college prep, career advice, student health and collegiate dating tips. Written by students for students, by a team of journalists from universities nationwide, we're on the pulse of the college experience.

Georgia Scholarships Catherine E. Students must demonstrate academic achievement. Deadlines and award amounts may vary. Preference is given to residents of states where Martin-Marietta has manufacturing operations, students majoring in Aerospace Engineering and dependents of company employees. Students must have a minimum 3. Number of awards and award amount may vary. Applicants must work for a minimum of two years at a HCA hospital facility. Number of awards may vary. Applicants must have financial need. Keith Baker Endowed Scholarship Annual award for undergraduate student who is a junior or senior attending Oglethorpe University in Atlanta, Georgia to major in Accounting. Applicant must demonstrate a strong academic record, active campus and community involvement, relevant work experience, and aspirations for a career in the field of accounting. Due date and award amount varies. Applicants must have a minimum 2. Students must have a minimum 2. Costley Scholarship Scholarship for undergraduate students attending Georgia Institute of Technology. Students must demonstrate financial need, academic achievement, and character. An essay must be included with application packet. Martin Scholarship Scholarship for undergraduate students enrolled full-time at the University of West Georgia. Students must demonstrate academic achievement and financial need. Sparks Scholarship Scholarship for undergraduate or graduate students enrolled full-time at Georgia State University. Students must demonstrate academic achievement, financial need, honesty, and integrity. Preference given to employed service. Applicants must have high academic achievement and financial need.

Chapter 2 : Directors | Purdue University Purdue Bands & Orchestras

University of Southern California Trojan Marching Band. Known as the "Hollywood's Band" the Spirit of Troy has been featured in dozens of movies and TV shows, including Forrest Gump, the Little Rascals, and Hello Dolly!

Learn more about the Music Department at Georgia College! Kazanetti String Quartet Performing and teaching together since , the Kazanetti String Quartet is an award-winning group that has distinguished itself across the country through its diverse programming and its commitment to excellence. Recently, Kazanetti returned from France as one of the selected quartets to perform at the Debussy Conference in Paris and has expanded its classical programs through collaboration with many artists and other professionals including the internationally-acclaimed Manhattan String Quartet, Academy Award nominee Mary Badham To Kill a Mockingbird , and world guitarist Pierre Bensusan. The ensemble plays an active role in education and continues to make a substantial impact on the arts with its highly innovative and successful concert series, kasanetti4kids, a program that integrates music, reading, and literacy with the core academic curriculum. Committed to arts advocacy and community engagement, the Kazanetti String Quartet maintains partnerships with organizations such as the Chattahoochee Nature Center and the Atlanta History Center. For more information, please visit www.sigmaphi.org. Sigma Alpha Iota is a professional music fraternity for women. Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, founded in , is a national fraternity for men. It is open to all men who have an interest in music, regardless of major. The American Choral Directors Association is dedicated to the advancement of choral music. Student ACDA provides opportunities for professional development for college students through participation in regional and national conventions. Chamber Ensembles The music department has a number of chamber ensembles of like instruments that are coached by faculty and rehearse weekly. Students typically play alone on their part, and the ensembles perform at least some works without a conductor. The music tends to be challenging, but anyone including non-majors can sign up for chamber ensembles. Repertoire changes each semester depending on the group composition. For information on any of these ensembles, please email smallensembles@gcsu.edu. Cliff Towner Flute Choir: Lisa Bartholow Guitar Ensemble: Dusty Woodruff Percussion Ensemble: Nathaniel Gworek Saxophone Quartet: Stephen Fischer String Chamber Ensemble: With a long tradition of excellence, the jazz band continues to amaze audiences with its entertaining and energetic performances. These performances in the spring of and featured guest artist like jazz trumpet player Byron Stripling and the world famous jazz trombonist, Bill Watrous. MNS is open by audition to all members of the university community. The group rehearses three times a week, Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from 1 to 1: The ensemble rehearses twice a week and performs several concerts each semester. This course can be used as a required ensemble for music majors who perform on an orchestral string instrument violin, viola, cello, string bass. This course can also be used as an elective for all university students. University Chorus University Chorus UC is a non-auditioned choral organization focusing on the study and performance of music of all periods and styles and is open to all members of the university community. Students who enjoy singing are encouraged to join regardless of major or music-reading skills. In the past five years, UC has performed a number of choral masterworks with instrumental ensembles and professional vocal soloists. UC rehearses twice a week, Tuesday and Thursday from 11 a. Students who were involved with their high school ensembles are encouraged to continue their performance experience at the college level and the GC Wind Symphony serves as a great opportunity to further your musical experiences. The performance group places an emphasis on reading experiences in a wide variety of standard and new band literature. In recent years the GC Wind Symphony has featured guest conductors like Steven Reineke and David Holsinger who rehearse the group and conduct on concerts featuring their music. The Georgia College Wind Symphony rehearses three days a week. The only activities scheduled out of this regular class meeting time are dress rehearsals, performances and social activities. Students receive one hour of academic credit for each semester they participate in the Wind Symphony. All female students who enjoy singing are encouraged to join regardless of major or music-reading skills. WE was reconstituted in and since then has performed a variety of works for treble voices including two world premieres: WE rehearses twice a week, Tuesday and Thursday from The course is open by audition to all members of the university community. In this course, students build competence in all areas of the field of acting, including voice, movement, characterization, historical style, and scene study. Music Theatre Scenes meets twice a week, Tuesday and Thursday from 3: Please contact Dana Gorzelany-Mostak dana. The group is open by audition to all members of the university community. This course is repeatable for credit. Permission of the instructor and an audition are required at the end of the previous semester.

Chapter 3 : College Band History - The Little Band Man Company

Get this from a library! The college and university band: an anthology of papers from the conferences of the College Band Directors National Association,

Marching band halftime shows are a staple of American football and a highlight of Game Day for many fans. All around the country bands perform crisp drill and blare incredible music, until the whole stadium is rocking. They are the pride and pinnacle of school spirit. There are hundreds of amazing marching bands all over America, but we wanted to highlight some of the best. Known for its big sound and precise, traditional drill, this marching band can practice up to 40 hours per week on top of their school schedule. Even off-screen, this band is seriously impressive. It also boasts the most performances at the Rose Bowl than any other college band at 33 times! It is a tradition that goes back to the 1800s, where someone stands as the dot of the I in the Ohio script formed by the band. University of Tennessee Pride of the Southland Band This historic band started out as a cornet-only ensemble over years ago, but has grown into full-fledged marching band that has performed for the presidential inauguration every year except since 1953. They are well-known for their circle drill and their kaleidoscope-like formations that wows any audience who sees them. University of Texas Longhorn Band Back down to Texas for another massive band with about 1000 members! It is the largest Big Ten marching band and boasts a few impressive alumni, including Orville Redenbacher and Neil Armstrong who played the tuba and baritone respectively. And boy do they love to dance! Penn State Blue Band The Blue Band had very humble beginnings in it was founded with only 6 members total in the drum and bugle corps. Now members strong, the Blue Band features instrumentalists, silks aka color guard and one of the few college marching bands that have them, majorettes, a featured twirler, and of course a drum major. University of Michigan Marching Band This band has some accomplishments to gawk at. Their achievements are well-earned. University of Iowa Hawkeye Marching Band Of course, we have to give a little shout out to the Hawkeye Marching Band since College Raptor is located in the heart of Hawkeye territory Iowa City and a few of the writers, including yours truly, were members of the band Go Hawks! HMB is known for entertaining every crowd and showcasing music both nostalgic and new. Maybe keep an eye out for a Part Two that highlights even more amazing college marching bands across the nation. Eager to march with or cheer on any of these bands? Enter your information into our college match tool to see your admission odds and potential financial aid packages for any college in the country!

Chapter 4 : Category:College marching bands in the United States - Wikipedia

Search for Colleges based on Marching Band Activities. Montana Colleges with Marching Band Activities. Montana State University-Bozeman.

The band can be reached by phone at home at and by e-mail through Cheryl L. Rose by crose alumni. They offer piping scholarships. They offer scholarships for piping and drumming. The band can be reached through the Officer Representative, Father Edson Wood, by e-mail at ye exmail. North Carolina At St. Andrews College Pipe Band. It can be reached through Bill Caudill by phone at or e-mail at bill andrews. See also, Scot Pipers. The band can be reached through the Band Director, Nancy Ditmer. The e-mail address is cdore acad. They offer minor scholarships for pipers, drummers, and highland dancers. More information can be obtained from the Pipe Band List. The pipe major is Alasdair Gillies. The band can be reached by e-mail at pipeband andrew. Best, by either e-mail at BBest aol. Grant, by phone at Instruction is available for beginning piping students, and Marching Band credit is offered for participation in the Pipe Band. Edinboro University is also the site of the Edinboro Spring Highlands Festival, with pipe band contests, Highland dancing, athletic events and more. The festival is held the first weekend in May. For more information about the Spring Highlands Festival, contact Dr. Tim Thompson through the University switchboard, at It can be reached through the Pipe Major, Wes Loder, by home phone at , work phone , or e-mail at mwl2 psu. The Pipe Major, Sandy Jones, can be reached by e-mail at jones citadel. It can be reached through Hilton McLarin whose e-mail address is hiltonmc aol. It can be reached through the Pipe Major, Ken Liechti, by home phone at or work phone at There is e-mail contact through the Pipe Sergeant, Wade Harper, at rupert austin.

Chapter 5 : List of 85 Georgia Colleges and Universities

These bands were chosen based on factors such as marching tradition, reputation, excitement, fan support, intensity, exposure, marching style, musicality, and enthusiasm by band members and staff. Used with permission from blog.quintoapp.com

Chapter 6 : Encore Band Camp - Georgia College and State University

Indiana University Band. Jed Jacobsohn / Getty Images Sport / Getty Images The "Marching Hundred" Marching Band was founded in Made up of woodwinds, brass, percussion, and "The Redsteppers" dance line, the band performs at all football home games (IU is a member of the Big Ten.

Chapter 7 : The Top 10 Colleges for Jazz, Rock, and Popular Music Performance - Music School Central

Bands are an integral part of a college football game; ask anyone at a Big 10 school. Marching bands are often as old as the football teams, and in some cases, they're even older. This means that the history and traditions associated with the bands are as important to them as coffee is to Lorelai Gilmore.

Chapter 8 : Bands | College of Visual and Performing Arts

Pages in category "College marching bands in the United States" The following 82 pages are in this category, out of 82 total. This list may not reflect recent changes ().

Chapter 9 : 10 of the Best College Marching Bands | College Raptor

The University of Hawaii, which traces its roots to a land grant college founded in , is a public research university governed by the Hawaii state legislature. Operating as the flagship campus for the University of Hawaii system, UH

Manoa is located in the Manoa valley, one of Honolulu's nicest neighborhoods.