Pokemon names with normal text color can only be found in both versions. Pokemon names with this color are exclusive to FireRed. Pokemon names with this color are exclusive to LeafGreen. This is a remake of the original Pokemon RPGs, so many things are alike. The game starts with a cool intro that is almost exactly like the intros in the original games. It then prints instructions on which buttons does what. Oak from now on , talking about Pokemon. The first thing you want to do is go to your PC at the top-left hand corner of your room and take out the Potion. Go downstairs, talk to your mom, and go outside. Go north into the grass area. He asks you to choose a Pokemon. Go to the table with the three PokeBalls and choose the Pokemon of your choice. Choose Your Pokemon This is the best choice for beginners, as it can take on the Pokemon in the first four Gyms easily. The level of difficulty of choosing Squirtle is medium. It has certain advantages in the beginning, but begins to have disadvantages faster than Bulbasaur. The hardest Pokemon to choose because of the many disadvantages in the beginning. However, it will become very powerful later on. Each Pokemon has its own advantages in the game, so choose wisely. After choosing your Pokemon, Gary will come over to the table and choose his Pokemon, which will have an advantage over your Pokemon. For example, if you were to choose Bulbasaur , Gary will choose Charmander. The Potion may come in handy now. Now leave the city and go North into Route 1 and towards Viridian City. Route 1 Try to level up in this route. When you get damaged, be sure to either go back to your house for a free healing from your mom, or to the Pokemon Center in the next city. Talk to the first person you see for a free Potion. Sooner than you think, Route 1 is coming to an end.
