Hawaii overflows with natural beauty. Piercing the surface of the Pacific from the ocean floor, the Hawaiian Islands are garlanded with soft sand beaches and dramatic volcanic cliffs.

UH also captured WAC championships in and , however, those were shared with other teams. Heisman Trophy candidate Colt Brennan led the Warrior aerial attack with yards and five touchdowns, while also rushing for another score. The faith on this team is huge. We believe in ourselves. Jason Rivers had 11 catches for yards and one touchdown. Hawthorne had yards and one score. Boise State, meanwhile, was third with The Warriors finished the game with yards of total offense and held the Broncos to a season-low yards rushing. Following a yard dash which put the Broncos up 7â€”0, the Warrior defense allowed only 19 yards the rest of the game to the Heisman hopeful. They battled through a lot of adversity and hung in there. The PAT was blocked, one of two blocked extra points by the Broncos on the night. BSU responded on its next drive, retaking the lead, 14â€” The Broncos traveled 69 yards on 11 plays with Johnson taking the pitch and going over the right side for a 1-yard score. The Broncos pulled to within two at the half with a yard field goal by Kyle Brotzman. The Warriors took the opening drive of the second half as Brennan completed all six of his attempts for 70 yards with the last 22 going to Bess on a flair to the left flats for a 26â€”17 lead. The Broncos scored 10 straight on a six-yard pass from Taylor Tharp to Rickie Brockel and a Brotzman yard field goal after Brennan was picked for the second time in the game. Brennan led the Warriors downfield on 10 plays and 70 yards, culminating on a seven-yard stop route to Rivers for a 32â€”27 lead. After forcing the Broncos to punt, Brennan then completed consecutive passes of 19 and 28 yards to running back Kealoha Pilares and Bess, respectively, before finally hooking up with Hawthorne on a yard toss. Neither team scored in the final period. WAC Players of the week:
