

Chapter 1 : Little Caesars Pizza Shadow Creek Pkwy Ste Pearland, TX Foods Carry Out - MapQuest

In Caesar's shadow Warming relations between Beijing and Rome has Catholics in Hong Kong"and underground Catholics in China"worried about state control.

Perfectly safe, non-threatening, and tame. If we took it seriously we would find it revolutionary; the sort of thing that could profoundly transform the Church and severely rattle world powers. Those are radical words! The confession first states who the Church is: Scripture defines holy believers as those washed by the Word Ephesians 5: This is the revolutionary work of God, the work that recreates us. He gives us a new identity, one that transcends cultures, countries, and political parties. We are not first German or American or Republican or fill-in-the-blank; we are first the holy people of God, the people God has called out of the world and claimed as His own. Further, our allegiances are realigned. We are not first indebted to Caesar or his state or his army although we may rightly honor and participate in these things ; we are first indebted to Christ and aligned with His Church. Christ is our master; He owns us. Caesar will not and cannot save world; that work can only be done by Christ and the Gospel He has placed in His Church. This means that the great gift the Church has to offer the world is not more legislation, enhanced social programs, or lobbyists in Washington although Christians may rightly support such efforts. The great gift the Church has for the world is Christ and His Gospel. Further, we have no promise that America or the American way of life will endure. Political parties rise and fall. The Church endures, and nothing, not even the gates of hell, will prevail against it. The Church is our home and our eternal community. The Church Hears the Voice of Jesus In addition to confessing who the Church is, our confessional statement declares what the Church does: That Word shapes and forms disciples of Jesus. And this is how the Church serves the world; it makes disciples of Jesus. Further, that Word exposes the American dream as inadequate and insufficient because that Word announces the in-breaking of the Kingdom of God. It is a weak substitute for the eternal joys of the Kingdom of God. This is especially important to remember just after a super-charged voting year. Yes, Christians should vote. Yes, Christians should study candidates and their positions on the issues. Yes, Christians should exercise their faith in the public square. As a case in point, Americans occasionally will hear political candidates claim 2 Chronicles 7: Further, the candidate equates a vote for himself with the promise of healing and forgiveness. Still others have kidnapped Biblical texts addressed to the Church and claimed them for Caesar, claiming that Caesar will bring the peace Scripture promises and that Caesar will bring the justice Scripture promises. But these words mean nothing to the Church apart from the death and resurrection of Jesus. The Church must remember that Caesar knows nothing of the ways of the Kingdom of God. God in Christ is forming a community out of strangers, and this community transcends all boundaries and loyalties. Caesar may speak of such things, but he must forcibly tax his subjects to accomplish them. The Church joyfully and freely gives out of love for Christ and neighbor. The Church must remember that Caesar is not God; Jesus is. Caesar cannot save the world; Jesus can. Caesar has his place, but it is not before Christ.
