If your photo is not identified, listed as "No ID", please private message us and help us identify your photo. Thank you, and good luck!!! The costumes were amazing and we hope you all had a safe and fun time!! Thanks for sharing your pictures!! Now to sort through all the photos! Stay tuned tomorrow to see them!!! Chaz Jackson was indicted for the homicide of Ryan Vanbuskirk that occurred in the blk of Catalpa Ave, on November 21, Steve Stechschulte at They had a great time decorating pumpkins! If you have any information on them please contact the LPD. We will be at 4 different locations throughout the City for you to meet with officers! Chief Martin will start in front of the LPD at 5: He will be driving a marked LPD cruiser that is marked "Chief. Please do not approach any other marked LPD cars that you see driving through the neighborhoods during the trick-or-treat event, as they might be responding to emergency calls for service, or they could be involved in active law enforcement duties! The officers that are directly involved with this event will only be at the locations indicated other than the Chief who will be in his marked cruiser. Next Thursday we will have officers out at several locations so photos can be taken for the contest! The voting will take place the following week here on Facebook and on Instagram! Get your best costumes ready! See you next Thursday! If you know where they are or have any information on them, please contact the LPD. To say this young man meant the world to us is an understatement! We ask the Lima community to please remember Maleek and his family in your prayers. Maleek was an amazing young man that touched the lives of everyone that had the pleasure of knowing him. To say this was a great time is an understatement! Seeing all the kids and costumes was a blast! The officers will go through in-house training and then be assigned to duties at the LPD until they attend the police academy at the Ohio State Highway Patrol Academy in January. We are happy to welcome them to the LPD family! The new officers are: Abigail Homan, age 23 from Maria Stein Ohio. Darien Gaukin, age 24 from Mount Victory Ohio. Tyler Dunlap, age 24 from Lima. Tyler graduated from Elida High School in Riley Brubaker, age 23 from Columbus Grove. Riley graduated from Columbus Grove HS in
