Built in , it was frescoed largely by Romano. It includes a circular courtyard left and a portrait of himself by his fellowartist and friend Titian. Its alliance with the Samnites failed, and Rome used the excuse to push its boundary north of the Po. Most came, sacked and left, but the Germanic Lombards took Pavia in and settled in the Po Valley, expanding across the north. Eventually the Byzantines and Charlemagne trounced them, and the region dissolved into a network of city- states that lasted throughout the Middle Ages. Defeats the Torriani Archbishop Visconti overthrew the leading Torriani family in Under years of Visconti rule, Milan extended its hegemony over much of the north. Instead, he cut a deal with Venice, split up the territory and made himself duke. Lombard League Wins Local Elections Northern resentment of sharing wealth with the much poorer south found political expression in the Lombard League, a separatist party that came to prominence in The city changed hands repeatedly until Austria seized power in Share your travel recommendations on traveldk.
