There were only who got recommended. In , there were approximately students who get on to the level of interview and only got the final selection. We have statistics of so many more years which will shock you badly. Have you ever thought that who are those 1 percent students who got to make the final selection? What actually they do? They neither panic, nor they are chilled out. The balance become the reason of their success. The percentage of final selected candidates is so less because so many are there who quit in the middle and thus, the remaining ones make the final selection. All you need is to understand that pattern to clear this interview that has four sections. The first is introductory part in which they will ask you some general questions, only the basic ones. After that, the level of questions is raised up to usual questions regarding some real life situations. Introduction questions The one of those basic questions which are asked by the Interviewer to make you feel comfortable and relax. The easy questions just to examine the level of your confidence. This section comprises of the questions regarding your name, your place, your friends, family, etc. Your Approach for these kind of questions should be honest, lucid, truthful and more than anything, optimistic. It is really very easy to answer these introduction questions but the big deal is to answer them in an optimistic way. Usual questions This section comprises of two kind of questions. The first, Rapid Fire questions and the second, Stress Questions. They may repeat a question again and again to irritate you, or may present a stressful and hard situations to check your ability to tackle different situations. And questions regarding your Hobbies, extra curricular activities to test your team spirit and leadership qualities and to examine candidate that how he handle tasks, sport or some situation. The questions in this section are asked on the basis of your answer in introduction part. The depth of knowledge and your way to tackle problems are examined in this section. Try to analyse the questions properly and then give a logical answer. Some history and currents affairs of the nation and all around the world can be asked. Tell them 5 current news from the newspaper. Along with the questions, we find it as our duty to aware the students on the approach they should apply to answer those questions in the interview round. Why you have only applied for Army and Navy? IO asked you this question because he want to know your foresightedness, self-motivation, awareness about the profession, desire to accomplish as a leader and your vision for future personal growth. You have to give a positive answer with showcasing all your positive aspects. There should not be even a tinge of doubt in your answer. What do you think why were you not recommended in previous attempts? Here, interviewer wants to know that whether you are well aware of your own drawback or not. And what have you don to improve them. He wants to know that how critical analyses you have did in your present level of preparedness. Generally, to this question, candidates start counting their mistakes. This is an absolutely wrong way to deal with the question. Instead, you need to focus on your improvements from the last attempt. You can highlight that your performance during the ongoing SSB has been fairly satisfactory as per your own judgement. Respected Sir, I realize that in previous attempts, my physical strength and speaking skills were inadequate. In fact, so many responses of mine lack down by every means. But, i can assure you that from last 5 months, i am working on it. And now, i am so much more confident about myself. In fact, in this attempt, i felt a major change in my performance and realized the value of knowledge. Why do you want to join the defence forces? Here, the interviewer is expecting you to define your passion for defence service. He want to examine that whether you are just an another job seeker or you are really a passionate aspirant. All you have to do is to be yourself. Yes, this is it. Try to give answer from the innermost part of your heart. Sir, I do believe that Defence services is not just a job but it is a way of life. It is one of the most dignified way to lead the best ever life and to serve the nation. I have an extreme interest in adventure and sports and thus i want to work in this area of field. Will you come back again for SSB interview if you fail this time? He want to check out your confidence. He is asking this question because he want to see the level of your nervousness. Try to reply calmly and confidently with a positive attitude, and fill your answer with your passion. I have come here for a reason so i cannot quit and will definitely come back. After all success is sure if efforts are true. Do you have a girlfriend? Here, the interviewer want to know that how focused you are towards your goal and what are the topmost priorities of your life. First of all, be truthful. Honesty is always the best policy. If you have a girlfriend then tell them in a tactful way. Like, you can say, yes i have a girlfriend and she is very supportive and encourages me for defence services all the time. Even, today, she wished me all the luck for this SSB interview. I have so many friends of school and college. Some are males and some are females. They all are very good. But, i have no such relationship with some particular girl. My first priority is armed forces and i want to make career in it. For now, i am totally devoted to it. Tell me something about the place you belong to? Here, the IO want to examine your observation power. He wants to check that whether you are keen and focused toward different things or not. You can include the geographical location, approximate population and some specific features and specialties of that place. I belongs to Dehradun for an instance. Dehradun is a valley situated on the foothills of the Himalayas. Being a capital of Uttarakhand, the city has all the government facilities, proper schooling accommodation, hospital facilities, etc. Tell me about your strengths and weaknesses. How are you doing with them? With this question, interviewer like to know that how much you actually know yourself. And how much efforts you are putting in to improve yourself. You have to answer very tactfully to this question, neither you have to appreciate yourself beyond limits, nor you have to keep criticizing. Sir, every person have some qualities and some limitations so as me. I do have skills in Computer education and technical work. I believe in punctuality and honesty. But, at the same time, i am full of flaws and i am constantly working to improve them. And i must say that each and everyday, i am turning into a better person. I know, once i will be selected here, i will get better chances to acquire more good habits. Tell me your motivation behind opting NDA? This question is always asked to examine your intense passion for defence services. Interview Officer wants to know that how much blood you can shed for your ambition. You have to give a genuine answer by truly describing your passion for defence Service. Never say something like, you can die for your country or anything like that. They are not paying you to die on the battle field. You can say that your parents are the true motivation. They encourage you all the time to serve the country. Sir, my father is an ex serviceman in Indian Army. From my childhood, whenever i saw him in uniform, i felt an intense respect and urge to do the same.
