In fact, prayer is one of the most powerful weapons God has given us so much that [] The Bible tells us that "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through #God to the pulling down of strong holds"- 2 Corinthians

I always knew prayer was an important piece in talking to God and in your relationship with Him as a Christian, but lately I have been challenged to pray more! There are several wonderful things that have come from my conviction to pray more: It is talking to My Father on a daily or even hour or minute by minute basis. But, I am convinced prayer changes me. Praying boldly boots me out of that stale place of religious habit into authentic connection with God Himself. Prayer Changes my Perspective When I spend more time talking to God, I spend less time thinking only of myself or my trials and more time on others and reasons why I am thankful. I may not be able to control or make a difference in a situation or on an issue, but God can! Taking requests, praises and needs to Christ in prayer has given me a new appreciation for people and our purpose in life. It helps to be more focused on others, not things or activities, but on people and the importance of the gospel. Prayer can even change my heart attitude towards others who have hurt me or have been a frustration. God has used that time to change me into seeing that person in a different light through His eyes or wakes me up to my petty, selfish issues that need to be corrected. Whether the prayer was answered through a yes or a no, or a change, it is amazing to be able to look back at what God has done. Requests that were made were resolved or answered. For example, prayer for being blessed with having children has been a huge gift from the Lord that my husband and I have been granted. Or feeling the nearness of Christ and His comfort in grief and sadness is very powerful. Knowing that God hears my heart and that I can pour out to Him any fear, need, joy, or request is a wonderful feeling. The more you feel the connection you have with the Father the more you want that. When you know and see that God cares and is in control, you want to be in constant connection with Him! Prayer is Empowering There are times in my life when a situation arises or a need for a friend has left me feeling helpless. Things are not in my control, but yet I fret and stress over trying to change the circumstances. Instead of staying in that worried, helpless state; prayer allows me to do something. Prayer empowers and provides hope even in the most desperate of situations. It can turn helplessness into a action of prayer filled hope. I know that praying does not mean I will get the answer I seek or that God will change the circumstance to the way I think it should go. Rather, prayer is my way of letting go and giving everything up to the One and Only, true God. He hears and he takes on our burdens, not leaving us to trudge through the muddy mess of life on our own. And who better, but the Lord of the Universe, to put our trust and hope in! Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Chapter 3 : Prayer is a Powerful Thing – Boots and Barbed Wire

Prayers are powerful, if we have faith as we pray to the Heavenly Father who can do all things as we trust Him with our lives. Reply Rkm92 January 26, at am.

The best place for a new believer to learn about prayer is at prayer meeting. A new believer may or may not want to vocalize their prayers right away. They can listen to mature Christian believers praying out loud and learn the language of prayer. The passion of new believers can help older believers to remember their first love and reignite a passion for Christ that has burned low. Sing Worship Songs. For longer meetings try to include a worshipful song. You could start the meeting with a song or have one in the middle to break things up. A song at the end of the meeting may be a great way to close out a prayer meeting with everyone singing a song of praise together. The group leader could ask for help to lead the song and to play a piano. Your prayer meeting is not a singing worship night, keep the focus on prayer. Use the singing to add to prayer and not take away from it. Update Prayer Resources and Promote Them. What is available in your church or denomination as a prayer resource? Do you have some books in the church library or your own personal library? Are there prayer letters available from missionaries or foreign workers? Do you have a global prayer guide? Do you have a prayer wall or map? What concerns can you find in your local newspaper that need to be prayed over? Remind the people attending the prayer meeting about the materials that you have available to help them deepen their prayer life or expand their prayer scope. Prayer Teams. Breaking your large prayer group into very small groups can be very intimidating for people unaccustomed to praying out loud and may prevent them from coming back. Break your much larger group into teams of 10 to pray over a specific concerns or ministry endeavours. Each team should be led by a couple of mature believers of prayer. Try to change your posture a couple of times through the meeting to help everyone pay attention. Could you all stand up and lay hands on a church leader or speaker? Maybe you can rearrange some chairs in the middle of the meeting to gather for a group prayer. How about standing up to sing? Pray a Psalm or a Written Prayer. Is there a Psalm or prayer written by a respected teacher or leader that speaks to a situation that you are in? Pray that written prayer aloud for everyone to agree to. Is there a responsive prayer that the group could pray together over a situation? The main point here is that changing prayer patterns can be beneficial and stimulate a great and deeper understanding of prayer. Spontaneous prayer is great. Allow Time for Individual Prayer. Even in a corporate prayer meeting you can allow time to people to call out to God from the deep reaches of their heart privately. You may want to do this at the beginning of the prayer meeting so that individuals can examine their own lives and repent of any sin in their lives. A time of personal prayer later in the meeting can be an opportunity for individuals to pour out their hearts to God and for people gifted with an intercessory prayer ministry to quietly pray for anyone seriously grieved and hurting. No more falling asleep or boredom allowed.

Chapter 4 : "Prayer is the most powerful thing in the world" by David Dickson | Tolle Lege

Prayer is a Powerful Thing Over the past few months, the Lord has brought the word and action of prayer onto my mind and into my heart. I always knew prayer was an important piece in talking to God and in your relationship with Him as a Christian, but lately I have been challenged to pray more!

Christians that do not learn to stand constantly in prayer will be defeated as most of our fighting is carried out through prayer. As Christians we should not underestimate the power of the enemy and arm ourselves daily with prayer. Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops. Praying is communicating with God. Simply put, prayer is talking to God. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. The effects of prayer The power that comes with prayer does not depends on how long we are in church, our position whether we are a pastor, evangelist or just a regular member. It does not matter in which position we are when praying whether standing, sitting down or kneeling down or where we are. In fact the power of prayer is not the result of the person praying. A new covert can pull destroy yokes by praying. Similarly, the power of prayer does not come from the use of artifacts or icons or candles or beads as some denominations and religions teaches. All God requires is that our motive is pure, we are persistent, humble in coming to him acknowledging that he is God and can do all things. Although having a close relationship with God will affect how effective our prayer is, that is not the case all the time. In fact many persons who have not fully surrendered their lives to God, in terms of baptism, base on their faith have prayed very powerful prayers that causes demons to tremble. Therefore I say to you, all things for which you pray and ask, believe that you have received them, and they will be granted you. And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him. Everything happens by faith, therefore to pray effectively you must pray with faith. You must pray with substance if you want God to be move by prayer and strongholds start tearing down. You know those people when they are speaking to you they speak to you as if they are afraid of you or they are coward. God calls us to be warriors. Warriors stand up to their enemy. When you stand in your God given authority and power and start commanding the heavens and calling those things that are not as if they are things starts to happen in the atmosphere. That is why we should be persisted in prayer. Then he prayed again, and the sky poured rain and the earth produced its fruit. What does God requires from us when we pray? Live a pure life. We will not always get it right, and we will make mistakes but nevertheless we should try to be holy. Approach God in the spirit of humility. The Bible tells us that God will draw near to those that are humble but will resist the proud, or stay for from them 1 Peter 5: The more we pray the closer we will be to God. When we develop a prayer life Pray the word of God. What did he say in his Word about the situation you are facing at this very moment? Find scriptures that deals with this particular situation and use principles from the Word of God in your prayer as God honors his words above his name Ps God will not always answer us with a yes, but his answers are always in our best interest. When our desires line up with His will, we will come to understand that in time. For our prayer to be effective we must get out of ourselves and allows the Spirit of God to direct our prayers. Our will must bow to his will and power. What James was saying is when you are living according to the Word of God and you get down on your knees or whatever position you choose to pray in in faith your prayer is very powerful and thus effective. Prayer is communicating with God. All you have to do is ask God for His help. He stilled the storm to a whisper; the waves of the sea were hushed. They were glad when it grew calm, and he guided them to their desired haven. For what things should I pray? The beauty about our God is that we can come to him with just about every and anything. Whatever question we may need answer for or whatever is troubling us we can take it to him in prayer. The Bible tells us in Philippians 4: And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. For example, the power of prayer has overcome enemies Psalm 6: God, through prayer, opens eyes, changes hearts, heals wounds, and grants wisdom James 1: The power of prayer should never be underestimated because it draws on the glory and might of the infinitely powerful God of the universe! He does as he pleases with the powers of heaven and the peoples of the earth. No one can hold back his hand or say to him: We have seen that God does answers prayers, so why should i pray? To build relationship with God- eg Mat

Chapter 5 : prayer is a powerful thing | I pray today

Prayer Is A Powerful Thing. K likes. A CHILD OF THE KING! Hello, everyone! As you know, I was going to an appointment to see about having my wisdom teeth removed, yesterday.

The power of prayer should not be underestimated. Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops. Nothing will be impossible for you" Matthew On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints" Ephesians 6: Power Of Prayer - How do I tap into it? The power of prayer is not the result of the person praying. Rather, the power resides in the God who is being prayed to. And if we know that he hears us - whatever we ask - we know that we have what we asked of him. His answers are not always yes, but are always in our best interest. When our desires line up with His will, we will come to understand that in time. We cannot access powerful prayer by using "magic formulas. In fact, Jesus rebukes those who pray using repetitions, "And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him" Matthew 6: Prayer is communicating with God. All you have to do is ask God for His help. He stilled the storm to a whisper; the waves of the sea were hushed. They were glad when it grew calm, and he guided them to their desired haven. Power Of Prayer - For what kind of things should I pray? And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. It is only an example of how to pray and the things that should go into a prayer - worship, trust in God, requests, confession, protection, etc. Pray for these kinds of things, but speak to God using your own words. The Word of God is full of accounts describing the power of prayer in various situations. The power of prayer has overcome enemies Psalm 6: God, through prayer, opens eyes, changes hearts, heals wounds, and grants wisdom James 1: The power of prayer should never be underestimated because it draws on the glory and might of the infinitely powerful God of the universe! He does as he pleases with the powers of heaven and the peoples of the earth. No one can hold back his hand or say to him: God , the Father, sent His only Son to satisfy that judgment for those who believe in Him. Jesus , the creator and eternal Son of God, who lived a sinless life, loves us so much that He died for our sins, taking the punishment that we deserve, was buried , and rose from the dead according to the Bible. If you truly believe and trust this in your heart, receiving Jesus alone as your Savior , declaring, " Jesus is Lord ," you will be saved from judgment and spend eternity with God in heaven. What is your response?

Chapter 6 : 31 Prayer Quotes - Be Encouraged and Inspired!

Prayer is a powerful thing? Yeah, uh-huh. Did prayer save the lives of all those who died in 9/11? No. Did prayer save the lives of those on the plane who prayed to god to save them before they died?

Lord give unto me according to your will. You will be blessed by this. A missionary on furlough told this true story while visiting his home church in Michigan. This was a journey of two days and required camping overnight at the halfway point. On one of these journeys, I arrived in the city where I planned to collect money from a bank, purchase medicine, and supplies, and then begin my two-day journey back to the field hospital. Upon arrival in the city, I observed two men fighting, one of whom had been seriously injured. I treated him for his injuries and at the same time talked to him about the Lord. I then traveled two days, camping overnight, and arrived home without incident. Two weeks later I repeated my journey. Upon arriving in the city, I was approached by the young man I had treated. He told me that he had known I carried money and medicines. We planned to kill you and take your money and drugs. But just as we were about to move into your camp, we saw that you were surrounded by 26 armed guards. At this, I laughed and said that I was certainly all alone in that jungle camp site. It was because of those guards that we were afraid and left you alone. At this point in the sermon, one of the men in the congregation jumped to his feet and interrupted the missionary and asked if he could tell him the exact day this happened. The missionary told the congregation the date, and the man who interrupted told him this story: I was about to putt when I felt the urge to pray for you. In fact, the urging of the Lord was so strong, I called men in this church to meet with me here in the sanctuary to pray for you. Would all of those men who met with me on that day stand up? This story is an incredible example of how the Spirit of the Lord moves in mysterious ways. If you ever hear such prodding, go along with it. Nothing is ever hurt by prayer except the gates of hell. I encourage you to forward this to as many people as you know. If we all take it to heart, we can turn this world toward God once again. As the above true story clearly illustrates, "with God all things are possible. After you read this, please pass it on and give God thanks for the beautiful gift of your faith, for the powerful gift of prayer, and for the many miracles He works in your own daily life" and then pass it on. Who says God does not work in mysterious ways? To guide you and protect you as you go along your way. His love is always with you, His promises are true, and when we give Him our cares you know He will see us through.
