

Reminiscences of the d Regiment, N.Y.S.V., giving a complete history of its three years service in the war Item Preview remove-circle Share or Embed This Item.

Unit Roster Further Reading This is meant to be a comprehensive list. If, however, you know of a resource that is not listed below, please send an email to ng. This can include photographs, letters, articles and other non-book materials. A group of 14 manuscript letters that tells the brief, but moving, story of Alexander Beveridge, from the beginning of his military service in August to his death in December Most of the items were addressed to his sister, Mary, in Hebron, New York detail his journey to New York to muster into service and then to the battlefields of Virginia. In his letter of August 23, he writes dramatically to his sister, his instructions regarding his estate should he fall in battle. The letter of September 23 a hand drawn map of the camp in Virginia. Also includes three letters written by officers and fellow soldiers regarding the circumstances of his death. The civil War Diary of Rice C. Civil War Collection, Letters and military papers of local men who served in the rd Regiment; includes copies of five letters from Captain Norman F. Weer to his father David Weer, ; letter from David Weer to his sons Norman and Sidney, ; military visiting permits issued to David Weer, ; copies of eight letters from N. Eldridge to his cousins and parents, ; forty-six letters from John McClarty to his parents relating camp experiences in Elmira, his stay in hospitals, and raiding farms and homes in the South, ; ten letters to John McClarty Sr. It contains a detailed description of the Battle of Kennesaw Mountain Ga. Robert Cruikshank Letters, John Cutter letters and photographs,, Letters and photographs related to the Civil War experiences of a Union soldier who served with three New York regiments and participated in the capture of Roanoke Island N. Two photographs of Cutter are also included. The collection also includes a reel of positive microfilm containing typescript copies of the letters , The typescript copies are variant versions, edited by the donor. Located at the Minnesota Historical Society. Located at Duke University. Diaries M - O, Neal, journal of voyage to Hawaii with 1st Infantry Regiment, U. Gordon Dillon collection, bulk Items relating to the history of the Town of Salem, N. The bulk of the collection consists of material relating to the Civil War. Reports written by Col. James Selfridge detail the operations of the 46th Regiment Pennsylvania during the campaign from Savannah to Goldsboro, and of the rd and st New York Volunteers during the occupation of Atlanta and the capture of Savannah, Remaining items concern Lt. The collection consists of a single diary kept by Alexander Dobbin from January 1, to December 31, A few entries record some details on Confederate prisoners, camp life, particularly during the two month encampment in Atlanta, and the wounding and death of Colonel A. Located at Emory University. The damned deserter of the Bloody Stars: Letters, May , from Orrin S. There are typescript copies of these letters. Located at the Library of Virginia in Richmond, Virginia. Thank you to Ed Worman for pointing out this resource. Minnesota Historical Society, Thirty-one letters, Sep. Letters are written from the field in Maryland, Virginia, Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia, and North Carolina, and are addressed to his pastor and various family members, including his parents, Mr. Robert Marshall, his sister Mary S. Marshall, and his cousin Sam Law. In them Marshall writes of friends and acquaintances at home and in the army; family news and private matters; incidents, injuries, illnesses, and fatalities at camp; engagements with the enemy and progress of military campaigns; daily life and conditions in the army; and his general duties and activities as a soldier. Marshall additionally writes of his religious convictions and faith in the moral righteousness of the Union cause. Horace Persons , Group of official letters concerning various administrative matters such as marching orders, promotions, and casualties. The letter of June 7, contains a detailed account of the battle of Chancellorsville. Discharge papers, Pension Papers, Surgeon papers. McLean family, et al. Papers, , bulk The bulk of these papers consist of letters originals and transcripts and diaries transcripts related to William C. The letters contain good descriptions of the battles at Gettysburg and Kenessaw Mountain Ga. In addition, McLean described the pillaging and burning of towns en route to Savannah under the command of General Sherman; and subsequent march through the Carolinas where Union forces skirmished frequently with Confederate troops under the command of General Johnston. The diaries compliment the letters by providing a brief summary of daily activities. These papers also include letters, estate records, land titles, and ephemera that are valuable primarily for genealogical and historical information on the McLean and allied families that had originally settled in the vicinity of Cambridge, New York. There are also two letters, ca. Senator and Congressman, James W. Wadsworth of Geneseo, New York. Finding aid available at <http://www.washingtoncountyhistoricalsociety.org>: Reminiscences of the 123d Regiment, N. Washington County Historical Society, . Most of the reports were signed by Robert Cruikshank, First Lieutenant. Muster rolls of Company H list names of soldiers, when joined service, date last paid, and remarks about promotions, illnesses, wounds, deaths. Each muster roll covered a period of two months. Also included are inventories of articles of clothing received from soldiers, 3 large mss. Letters to his wife from Robinson. Most letters date from the Civil War period with only two of the letters dating from after the war. Tooley Brothers William A. Salem Axiom Print, Washington County Veterans Association minute book, . Its purposes were patriotic, keeping friendships, and holding an annual muster or gathering in Washington County. For many years, H. Morhous of Greenwich served as Secretary. This volume mainly contains minutes of annual meetings of the Washington County Veterans Association. Most of the minutes in the volume are not in manuscript form but from published versions in newspapers pasted in the volume. Also included are by-laws and some correspondence. For some meetings a complete list of those in attendance is provided. Letters of Henry Welch. He mustered in as a private in Company K on September 4, 1862, and was promoted to corporal in June 1863. Letter, 18 September 1862, from Captain N. Military History Last modified: January 19, 2011, URL: <http://www.washingtoncountyhistoricalsociety.org>

Chapter 2 : Reminiscences of the d Regiment, N. Y. S. V

Reminiscences of the d Regiment, N. Y. S. V Giving a Complete History of Its Three Years Service in the War by Henry C. Morhous Giving a Complete History of Its Three Years Service in the War by Henry C. Morhous.

The rd New York Infantry mustered out of service June 8, Recruits and veterans were transferred to the 60th New York Volunteer Infantry. Duty in the defenses of Washington, D. Moved to support Burnside at Fredericksburg, Va. At Stafford Court House until April 27, Chancellorsville Campaign April May 6. Battle of Chancellorsville May Gettysburg Campaign June July Battle of Gettysburg July Pursuit of Lee to Manassas Gap, Va. Duty on line of the Rappahannock River until September. Moved to Bealeton Station, Va. Action near Tullahoma, Tenn. Atlanta Campaign May 1-September 8. Operations against Rocky Faced Ridge May Battle of Resaca May Near Cassville May Advance on Dallas May New Hope Church May Pine Hill June Lost Mountain June Gilgal or Golgotha Church June Muddy Creek June Assault on Kennesaw Mountain June Chattahoochie River July Peach Tree Creek July Siege of Atlanta July August Occupation of Atlanta September 2-November March to the sea November December Siege of Savannah December Carolinas Campaign January to April Battle of Bentonville March Occupation of Goldsboro March 24, and of Raleigh April Surrender of Johnston and his army. March to Washington, D. Grand Review of the Armies May Casualties[edit] The regiment lost a total of men during service; 6 officers and 66 enlisted men killed or mortally wounded, 95 enlisted men died of disease. Rogers - commanded at the Battle of Gettysburg while at the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Chapter 3 : Local History Collection “ Galway Public Library

Reminiscences of the 123d Regiment, N.Y.S.V.: giving a complete history of its three years service in the war Item Preview remove-circle Share or Embed This Item.

Bull, rd New York Volunteer Infantry. Written by Sergeant Rice C. The rd New York Infantry. Written by Sergeant Henry C. Mulholland, Chris, George W. To view the short biography on Pvt. Sears, Company A, click here. Williams to his family. University of Nebraska Press, Lincoln and London. Ed Robinson submitted the photo of General Williams and his staff and the following review: The rd NY was in the 1st Brigade of that Division and so much of the description in these letters is relevant to the rd actions. It is an excellent research and resource book for those who would like more insight on the actions of the Division and the politics of the Army at that time. C , rd New York, is standing behind Gen. He was the aide-de-campe to Gen. Williams for about two years. He is mentioned on page of the book. George Robinson - 2nd Lieutenant; date of commission, September 10, ; date of rank, August 22, ; promoted 1st Lieutenant Co. C; discharged with regiment; after the war, was a Chaplain at Fort Beaufort. Foreword by Duane A. Compiled by Edward C. Robinson and Tim Tefft from the diary and letters of Lt. The book consists of letters and diary excerpts from the rd New York that were written during the Atlanta Campaign and the March to the Sea. Many of the letters have never before been published. The book can be ordered from here: History of Washington County, New York. New York in the War of the Rebellion, to , 3rd ed. New York State Archives.

Chapter 4 : rd New York Volunteer Infantry - Roster

*Reminiscences of the d Regiment, N.Y.S.V.: Giving a Complete History of Its Three Years Service in the War [Henry C. Morhous] on blog.quintoapp.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers. Leopold is delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection.*

The rd New York Infantry mustered out of service June 8, Recruits and veterans were transferred to the 60th New York Volunteer Infantry. Duty in the defenses of Washington, D. Moved to support Burnside at Fredericksburg, Va. At Stafford Court House until April 27, Chancellorsville Campaign April May 6. Battle of Chancellorsville May 1â€”5. Gettysburg Campaign June July Battle of Gettysburg July 1â€”3. Pursuit of Lee to Manassas Gap, Va. Duty on line of the Rappahannock River until September. Moved to Bealeton Station, Va. Action near Tullahoma, Tenn. Atlanta Campaign May 1-September 8. Operations against Rocky Faced Ridge May 8â€” Battle of Resaca May 14â€” Near Cassville May Advance on Dallas May 22â€” New Hope Church May Pine Hill June 11â€” Lost Mountain June 15â€” Gilgal or Golgotha Church June Muddy Creek June Assault on Kennesaw Mountain June Chattahoochie River July 5â€” Peach Tree Creek July 19â€” Siege of Atlanta July August Occupation of Atlanta September 2-November March to the sea November December Siege of Savannah December 10â€” Carolinas Campaign January to April Battle of Bentonville March 19â€” Occupation of Goldsboro March 24, and of Raleigh April Surrender of Johnston and his army. March to Washington, D. Grand Review of the Armies May Casualties The regiment lost a total of men during service; 6 officers and 66 enlisted men killed or mortally wounded, 95 enlisted men died of disease. Rogers - commanded at the Battle of Gettysburg while at the rank of lieutenant colonel See also.

Chapter 5 : rd New York Volunteer Infantry - Resources

*Reminiscences of the d Regiment, N.Y.S.V.: Giving a Complete History of Its Three Years Service in the War [Henry C. Morhous] on blog.quintoapp.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers. Trieste Publishing has a massive catalogue of classic book titles.*

Chapter 6 : State Regimental Histories on DVD | American Civil War Forums

Get this from a library! Reminiscences of the d Regiment, N.Y.S.V giving a complete history of its three years service in the war,. [Henry C Morhous].

Chapter 7 : Catalog Record: History of the th Regiment, N.Y.S.V. | Hathi Trust Digital Library

Loading Reminiscences of the d Regiment, N.Y.S.V., giving a complete history of its three years service in the war, by Henry C. Morhous, to which is added an appendix, containing the names of each man in the Regiment.

Chapter 8 : rd NY Infantry Regiment during the Civil War - NY Military Museum and Veterans Research Ce

Get this from a library! Reminiscences of the d Regiment, N.Y.S.V., giving a complete history of its three years service in the war,. [Henry C Morhous].

Chapter 9 : Reminiscences of a Private

Reminiscences of the d Regiment, N.Y.S.V., giving a complete history of its three years service in the war.