

Chapter 1 : | Travel + Leisure

Take home a piece of Vancouver with a souvenir from one of our local shops. Learn more about unique keepsakes like First Nations art and salmon.

After all the travels, I am not much inclined to buy T-shirts or caps carrying the names of the destinations. I want something authentic, something that has strands of culture in it. Of course, there are other Canada souvenirs too that I found for you guys. You can buy these masks based on your preference. I liked the Thunderbird masks a lot but then you choose the mask you like. Masks are available in sizes that are fit for dancing with them and in miniature forms for collectors Totem Poles Miniature Totem Poles as Canada Souvenirs If you have been reading my posts on Canada, you would know that I am fascinated by the Totem Poles I saw everywhere. I wanted to bring back one " but ones I liked were mostly huge poles. You can again buy them in plain wood or in colored forms. Miniature poles are also available at some shops. I also wanted to make sure that at home these Totem Poles should be treated with the respect that they deserve. I picked up a fridge magnet depicting a Thunderbird Totem Pole and a bookmark showcasing one. Although, I think I have so many images that I can make some of my own bookmarks. You can buy the small boxes in most curio shops. The boxes may look simple but it is the way they are manufactured that makes them special. They call it the tree of life and use different parts of Cedar Tree for making different things. You can buy some of these as souvenirs from Canada. Baskets are the easiest souvenirs to carry. I brought back a bracelet made from Cedar Tree Bark. I think small curios like a canoe made of cedar tree bark and decorated with flowers made from bark look beautiful. You can choose the one you think you need and keep it as a protective Pocket Spirit in your wallet. You can also get these as lockets to wear it on you. They are called spirit totems. Across various souvenir shops in BC I saw that the Love and Healing are the most popular pocket spirits. They were always short of those coins. Does it not tell us what we are looking for in life as human species? These Canada Souvenirs can be a good wish gesture that is easy on the pocket. These are pebbles that have the spiritual signs engraved on them with a word that tells you what the sign can potentially bring to your life. The words were the same as pocket spirits. You can also find just motifs on the shining stones. Medicine Stone Jewelry is another form to carry positivity and strength from stones with you. I would choose these to keep at home or at the workplace to invite positive energy. Woven Blankets or Carpets Roughly woven woolen shawls or blankets with First Nations Motifs are a lovely way to bring this traditional art form home. First nations weaving techniques that use a stone spindle are being revived. You can buy the handwoven pieces and use them as you like. I would love to use them as wall pieces " a reminder of the past. They weave beautiful patterns in colorful small beads. You can see jewelry made out of these woven small beads or see them decorating footwear. I have seen similar bead jewelry at Jhabua in India and in Singapore by Peranakans. Books on First Nations If you are as curious as I am with First Nations " pick up some books as Canada souvenirs to learn more about their culture and anthropology. It is a symbol used in mountains for marking the paths and for commemorating events. This iconic symbol was the emblem for Vancouver Olympics and can be seen at many places. I was fascinated by this symbol that looks like a standing man. I have seen similar stacks of stones in Indian Himalayas too. You can get Inukshuk in wood, in stone, and in precious stones. I saw different designs of fur shoes across Vancouver and British Columbia. An interesting innovation I saw was texting gloves in fur that leave your fingertips open for you to manage your phone while covering the rest of your hands. I avoid buying animal products so did not buy any. But, if you have no such apprehensions, go ahead and buy yourself some fluffy fur stuff. Dream Catchers Every souvenir shop in British Columbia has a bunch of dream catchers. Actually, I found them a lot in Bali as well, so maybe they are the latest totems that people like to wear. Dream catchers as earrings is a cool and wearable of the Canada Souvenirs to bring back. I believed that this is a fine art that belongs to Odisha in India but art it seems traveled much before I did. Modern artisans are carving this latticed fine jewelry in gold, silver, sterling silver and copper. These are lightweight, delicate and elegant pieces fit for modern living. With their contemporary style, they are a good buy from Canada for modern and young people. They made these lovely motifs on different materials " difficult to resist, believe me. It is fascinating to see a piece being crafted right in front of you. When you know the labor and craft that has gone into making it look that beautiful, you value such souvenirs from Canada or anywhere. Jade Jewelry In most souvenir shops you would find Jade souvenirs including the Inukshuks I mentioned earlier. There is a wide range of choice you have from Jewelry to mementos in various motifs. Now that is another reason to pick up a piece of Jade as Canada Souvenir. We all associate it strongly with the country. It is obvious that you can get all kinds of souvenirs with the Maple Leaf Motif. I loved the one I found carved in wood. You can, of course, get it on every possible souvenir from Canada from fridge magnets to T-shirts to towels. Just pick it up in a market and gorge on it. At the Public Market in Granville, I saw this amazing array of fudges. I tried the maple one – found it too sweet for my taste but I am sure those of you with a sweet tooth would love it. To carry back you can buy well-packed fudge. Use the Maple Syrup google How and then use the bottle to store your favorite fragrances or oils. There were so many flavors of sea salt that you would be spoilt for choice. Now, these are usual spices that even a novice like me can use but in different combinations. I think these are wonderful gifts from Canada for those who love to cook – you might get a nicely cooked meal in return. He said, everyone, he has brought to this shop ended up buying the shoes. I did not buy the shoes but I ended up discovering a local brand. Yes, John Fluevog is a local Vancouver brand that designs and manufactures shoes for men and women. This cult brand now has stores across North America and Europe. Stone Souvenirs from Canada Stone Messages – These are cute stones with some beautiful messages written on them. Colored Stones – Lovely colored stones from the mines of British Columbia. You can use them for decorating the house or get them pierced to make jewelry. Stone Sculptures – You can buy many stone sculptures as well that show some traditional designs like Inukshuk or contemporary designs.
