Return to top The Fine Print Like you, we specialize in ultrasound. You are our customer. We never forget that it is our privilege and honor to serve you, and to serve you well. Call us any time. It will be our pleasure to help you choose the registry preparation, CME, and educational activities that make sense for you. Like you, we specialize in ultrasound. If for any reason you are dissatisfied with one of our publications, you may return it to us within 30 days of receipt for a replacement, refund, or credit, whichever you wish. If your order is defective or damaged in transit, please call us so we can arrange free UPS pick-up. All other returns must be in saleable condition and returned to our office by traceable means such as UPS with a copy of the original invoice. We cannot be responsible for returns that are lost in the mail, which is why we suggest that you use a traceable shipping method. Except in cases of damaged or defective products, return postage is your responsibility. Applicable state and local sales tax may be collected as required by law. For international delivery options, please call, fax, or email us. Prices rarely change, but may change without notice. Discounts apply only to orders you place directly with us and cannot be combined except in the case of special offers. If your order qualifies for more than one discount, the greatest discount will apply. We process CME applications within one business day of receipt. More than one person may use our printed CME products. Processing fees seldom change but may change without notice. CME quizzes may change as well, so contact us to confirm you have the most current quiz. Application fees help to defray the costs of scoring, processing, recording, reporting, and maintaining an auditable file of your CME applications and test results. Your CME application will receive the personal attention of a CME specialist who can advise, counsel, and assist you with special needs and requests. We provide you with a certificate of proof for your records and maintain our own meticulous record of the CME credit you earn through Davies. Just call or email us!
