Palestinian Media Watch Here are the facts. The invisible victims of terrorism are the Israeli Jews. The perpetrators inciting for a genocide against the Jews are the Palestinian Arabs, who seek to destroy Israel and kill Jews in the name of Palestinian liberation and Jihad. How do we prove these facts? Every martyr will reach Paradise, and everyone wounded will be rewarded by Allah. The Anti-Christ will be killed and the Muslims will live in comfort for a long time. Come out and kill him! Thus it is the overall strategy not merely a tactical phase. Yet this is ignored by a disinterested world, who does not care to protect the only liberal democracy in the region, a region whose hate spills over onto European shores. While the world painted the colors of the French tricolor on their Facebook pages, Israelis were being killed on an almost daily basis at the hands of Palestinian Arabs. There were no blue and white face-overs on Facebook profiles in memory of our dead. It was startling to see how many Facebook Jews identified with the Parisian outrages but failed to stand publicly with the murdered Jews of Israel. It seems the overpowering phony Palestinian narrative has cowed even Jews into silence. This narrative not only emanates from Palestinian and BDS propaganda sources. It resounds in media headlines that scrub Jewish dead while refusing to name Palestinian Arabs as the murdering terrorists. Headlines, such as this of the BBC, seem to deliberately alter facts to hide the truth: No one would know from reading this news report that the Palestinian shot dead was an Arab attacker that targeted Jews. Nor would they know that the two killed were his Jewish victims. In every case, editors twist themselves into pretzels to avoid telling the truth. They have an undeniable agenda to present Palestinian Arabs as victims, a right that cannot be granted to Israeli Jews even as they are being attacked, wounded and killed by murderous Palestinian Arabs. It spoils these editors permanent story line. Every story must be portrayed to represent the best interests of the Palestinians and present the worst of those pesky Israelis. The deliberate protection of the ugly face of violent Palestine ends up neutralizing the story, leaving no room for sympathy for Israeli victims. When it happens regularly, you know there is an editorial issue at work here. Can you imagine the global reaction if Arabs had been stabbed, mown down in vehicular attacks, shot, or injured and killed by rock-throwing Jewish Israelis? Can there be any doubt it would not have made headline news around the world, especially if it were occurring daily, as it is to Jews in Israel? Does anyone think that the noise level of reaction against Israel would not have been deafening? Is there any denial that international bodies would have been calling for criminal investigations and punishing condemnations of Israel, rather than the individual perpetrators? Would anyone attempt to justify the resultant Arab deaths and injuries as an excusable reaction to ongoing violence against a fearful population? Not worth spilling editorial ink. So why the double standard? Incitement to genocide is an international crime. Why is this not being called out? Tolerating a Palestinian Authority that calls for a world without Israel as they murder Jews is intolerable, particularly when it is practiced by liberal democratic countries. The statements made by Western leaders have been heinous. I use that word deliberately. He forgot to mention Israeli terror victims. No doubt he will call it a slip of the tongue. He was not alone. This dangerous Western thinking and rhetoric is wrong. It has to end! It is time for misguided influence and opinion makers to own up to the truth. The truth is that Israeli Jews are being targeted and killed for being Israeli Jews. The truth is a Palestinian ambition not to live in peace alongside Israel but to destroy Israel and kill Jews. The truth is they are sanitizing anti-Semitic incitement and attacks. The truth is they are emboldening a Palestinian leadership who sees Western intellectuals mouthing their narrative and closing their eyes to their crimes. As long as Israeli Jews remain the invisible victims of terror, victims of an invisible malevolent Palestinian agenda, do not expect Israelis to offer gestures or concessions for peace. We, the invisible victims and targets of Palestinian terror, are too busy trying to stay alive.
