By AlanP, March 25th, Genesis He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water, That brings forth its fruit in its season, Whose leaf also does not wither. Whatever he does shall prosper. I shall lack nothing. In the shelter of your presence you will hide them from the plotting of man. You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues. I will counsel you with my eye on you. They looked to him, and were radiant. Their faces shall never be covered with shame. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, But those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, And wither like the green herb. Trust in the LORD, and do good. Dwell in the land, and enjoy safe pasture. Commit your way to the LORD. Trust also in him, and he will do this: He will make your righteousness go forth as the light, And your justice as the noon day sun. Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath. He withholds no good thing from those who walk blamelessly. You give to them; they gather. You open your hand; they are satisfied with good. He fills the hungry soul with good. I will never forget your precepts, For with them, you have revived me. In all your ways acknowledge him, And he will direct your paths. He gives power to the faint; and to him who has no might he increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from the LORD. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good comes, but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, who spreads out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat comes, but its leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. You are the branches. He who remains in me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. For when I am weak, then am I strong. When Christ, our life, is revealed, then you will also be revealed with him in glory.

When God revealed Himself to Moses and the nation of Israel, it was in these terms: The Bible says this about the eternal, Creator God: According to the Bible, God is good. But what does that mean exactly? In a world of evil, pain and suffering, some question whether God really is all good. In fact, some claim that the God described in the Bible is cruel and definitely not good. How Religion Poisons Everything. According to Christopher Hitchens, God is not great or good. It can have to do with perspective. Some people tend to evaluate life merely in reference to the short term. It ignores the possibility that something that brings short-term pleasure can produce pain, suffering or loss in the long term. It also fails to see how good in the long term might result from struggles or suffering in the short term. The list could go on. If we are to understand God and the goodness of God, it is important that we study what the Bible teaches about this question. God has a wonderful plan for His human creation—a very good plan! For this wonderful plan to be accomplished, there are struggles along the way for us human beings Matthew 7: God is good, and that goodness is seen as He accomplishes His purpose to expand His family. They are expanding the God family. In the working out of that purpose, God reveals His character—His nature—to mankind. He shows us that we are to become like Him. His character is pure, holy and loving. In this revealing of His holy nature to His human creation, God is good. God reveals His righteous law to mankind. His law serves as a guide to living in a way that pleases God, and it leads to the accomplishment of His plan. In working out His glorious purpose, God has first made mankind mortal and given him physical life. In doing this, God is good. In this merciful response to repentance, God is good. Christ, the Son of God, died for sinners, so that they might live. If a person then uses that spiritual power given by God to change, that person can be transformed from within. In every aspect of the working out of His plan of salvation, through Jesus Christ, in the lives of human beings, God is good. Many do not understand it in light of the Bible or of the nature and workings of God. But, even in that regard, there is good news! The good news is that this will change! In that wonderful time, when the Kingdom of God rules the earth, the goodness of God will be known and understood and praised throughout the earth! They shall utter the memory of Your great goodness, and shall sing of Your righteousness. The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and great in mercy. What should you do?
