

Chapter 1 : Federal Enforcement Of Child Support | JM | Department of Justice

For one, an individual is subject to federal prosecution if he or she willfully fails to pay child support that has been ordered by a court for a child who lives in another state, or if the payment is past due for longer than 1 year or exceeds the amount of $5,

This rule is being rescinded because the material is related to a project that has been completed. The rule is not being replaced. This rule is being rescinded and the information will be included in rules This rule is being rescinded and replaced with rule OCS has proposed the adoption of the following rules: This rule will replace No substantive changes have been made. This rule is an introductory rule that lists the rules that are included in the federal offset program and describes how the programs within the federal offset program are related. This rule provides an introduction to the federal income tax refund offset program and definitions used in the supplemental rules. This rule describes the criteria required for submittal to the federal tax refund offset program. Material in this rule is taken primarily from paragraph F of rule The restriction on submission of an obligor for federal offset due to a bankruptcy filing has been removed as the result of changes made by the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of P. This rule describes the federal match process and the pre-offset notice procedure. Material in this rule is taken from paragraphs C and L of rule This rule describes the requirements for adding, updating, and deleting obligors from the Ohio tax offset file. Material in this rule is taken from paragraphs G , H , I , and J of rule This rule contains material that was not in the previous rule regarding the procedures CSEAs are required to follow when a federal tax offset submission is rejected by the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement. Although this material has not appeared previously in the Administrative Code, the material does not contain any new procedures for CSEAs. This rule describes the process used for an administrative offset review of a submittal to the federal income tax refund offset program. This rule describes the process used to offset an federal income tax refund. Material in this rule is taken from paragraphs L and X of rule This rule describes fees which are charged by the federal Financial Management Service for each federal tax offset processed. Material in this rule is taken from paragraph V of rule This rule describes collection reports that are used by CSEAs in processing federal income tax refund offsets. Material in this rule is taken from paragraph W of rule This rule also contains some additional material which was added for clarity. This rule describes the processes used to rectify invalid offsets. Material in this rule is taken from paragraphs T and U of rule This rule describes the way in which federal tax refund offset collections from joint tax returns are disbursed. This rule describes the passport denial program. Material in this rule is taken from paragraphs F and S of rule The following form has been revised:

Chapter 2 : Full text of "HANDBOOK ON CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT"

This Handbook is a guide to help you get child support. You'll find the steps to follow to establish fatherhood, obtain a support order, and collect the support due, whether you are working with your state, local, or tribal child support program or your own attorney.

Chapter 3 : Child Support Regulations

OCSE partners with federal, state, tribal and local governments and others to promote parental responsibility so that children receive support from both parents even when they live in separate households.

Chapter 4 : Full text of "Child support enforcement manual"

Federal Enforcement Of Child Support Title 18, United States Code, Section , the Child Support Recovery Act of (CSRA), makes the willful failure to pay a past due support obligation with respect to a child residing in another State a Federal offense.

Chapter 5 : Child Support Handbook | Office of Child Support Enforcement | ACF

Office of Child Support Enforcement. The Office of Child Support Enforcement assures that support (both financial and medical) is available to children through locating parents, establishing paternity, identifying support obligations, and enforcing those obligations.

Chapter 6 : Child Support Services CHILD SUPPORT SERVICES POLICY MANUAL

The Federal statute requires the national child support program to be administered by a separate organizational unit under the control of a person designated by and reporting directly to the Sec-.

Chapter 7 : Child Support Handbook

Some provisions in the law also directly impacted child support collection, including the creation of a Federal Case Registry of Child Support Orders (FCR) and a National Directory of New Hires (NDNH) for the purpose of tracking child support cases and locating obligors.

Chapter 8 : Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE) | Office of Child Support Enforcement | ACF

The Federal Child Support Enforcement Program is essentially a partnership between the Federal Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE) and each state's local, state-run child support agency. On the federal level, the OSCE collects information from various agencies that can be used in locating parents.