I put a ball of light around her and asked the angels to assist in her transition. The fluttering of her wings stopped. She quieted, and I heard a beautiful message that she would come back to the Earth as pure light essence. With this message, a puzzle piece was completed, and I felt the emergence of the Rainbow Light and the Rose Merkaba, which will propel us into a new human experience of infinity. The August Blue Moon August 31st, 9: The moon is creating a gravitational pull towards our passage across the Rainbow Bridge into the New Earth and new human body. As we align with this field of possibility we move through other fields of possibility. It may be prudent to be aware of this. Many of us who have come this far to see the Rainbow Light now at the end of the tunnel have mastered the strings of duality that can rock our boat. This can be an opportunity to pierce the veil of death and bring the light to all things in our experience. When we do, the illusion of death becomes visible and the substance of our Earthly and Human matter turns into pure light it ascends into the heart and beyond! Each step towards the bridge we leave the old reality i. We are dropping the old humanity and with it the death program, as well as all limiting beliefs that hold us in finite living patterns. On the other side we are immortal and infinite, and all projections of reality re-aligned with immortality and infinity. As we feel, sense and know this possibility in our hearts, we are drawn over the Rainbow Bridge. It also becomes a signature in us that says we are of the Christ Consciousness galaxy. Our cosmic address is in our blood! The process of assimilating from the old to the new timeline has a gestation period of at least two weeks. It is through this turbo charge if you tune into the center of a coffee bean, you will understand this energy signature â€” thanks to my galactic traveling companion Gabriele of Dimensional Re-Alignment this understanding came through! The Merkaba is a field of light around the physical body in the formation of two star tetrahedrons. There have been many ways to get to the Merkaba. The process unfolding before us now is to emerge into the Merkaba field organically through the womb of the Cosmic Mother. The star formations are like two roses facing one another and spiraling into our center to become the Double Rose Merkaba. We come into re-alignment with the organic flower of life design with the capability of co-creating new expanses of infinity. As co-creators, we re-align with the many textures of love, which serve as our inspiration to create. In these months ahead, I am knowing the grace of this process for Earth and Humanity. That a group of brave, bright lighted beings will lead the way across the Rainbow Bridge will ease the passage for all as the heavens open up at the close of the year with the alignment of December 21, I continue to be amazed by how the elementals in their multi-dimensional form are expressing the design of our organic evolution into freedom, sovereignty and liberty. If at this time, you need extra support call on the elementals that are here with you to brave the layers of dis-illusionment and re-member the way of Truth. Namaste and joyful crossing!
