

Chapter 1 : 33 Hottest Scarlett Johansson Bikini Pictures Will Make Black Widow Fans Mad.

Scarlett Johansson wore a bikini today for an afternoon on a yacht floating off the Sicilian town of Taormina. The actress sunbathed in a two-piece suit and chatted with a muscular male friend. The.

The actress looked absolutely dazzling in a black dress that exuded confidence and radiance. She looked very much like an A-list celeb, and her smile appeared to be charismatic and genuine. That confidence and glow is what helps to set her apart from other women. Perfect for her ample bosom. The dress also featured some tailoring and rouching at the right hip to help draw attention to her hourglass figure. After all, Scarlett is blonde, busty, and beautiful, much like the iconic movie star. In a photo shoot, it looked as though Scarlett was really trying channel Marilyn, and it worked. Scarlett was in front of a sky-blue backdrop while wearing a long, thin white tank top. The deep scoop neck showed off her lovely chest, and we can also spot some peek-a-boo action from her red bra underneath. Scarlett put on a shiny pink gloss and had her hair in old-school Hollywood ringlets. It is absolutely gorgeous. We are not sure just how tight that dress had to be to keep her girls up, but the result is a lovely display. Scarlett looked like an iconic Hollywood star with her pulled-back up-do and super-glitzzy diamond earrings. Her slightly parted lips lent a sexy vibe, too. If you can pull your eyes from her chest, take a look at those smoldering eyes. She is certainly a sight to behold! This time, Scarlett wore the white lace dress with black accent bow while entertaining the crowd during a movie premiere. She was kind enough to step off of the red carpet and get up close and personal with her fans. Whoever was standing in the front row of the masses definitely got an eye-full of chest. Only a star like Scarlett would be able to pull that off. In this photo, she is rocking a hairstyle we do not normally see on her, but it is gorgeous all the same. She has a half-up, half-down hairdo, and we can see her delicate gold hoop earrings between her tresses. Her hair was a dirty blonde at this point; a departure from her signature platinum blonde. As for her dress—va, va, va, vroom! This slinky number is stunning all by itself. Scarlett has the chest to do it justice, as well as the hips and arms to bare it all. For a Mario Sorrenti photo shoot, the actress looked absolutely alluring; almost like a Greek goddess. She was showing off her red locks, which really popped in this photograph. Her dress was a form-fitting pale lilac ensemble with intricate beading detail. The neckline reached all the way down to her mid-torso, revealing mega cleavage and side boob in the process. Scarlett looked regal and elegant in this photo and her piercing eyes just stared deep into your soul! At the Academy Awards red carpet ceremony in , the actress was shot from behind by the paparazzi. The result was a picture that is worth a thousand words or maybe more. In this photo, we can glimpse her edgy hairdo with shaved sides, as well as a coy cheeky smile. Her cheekbones are looking absolutely fabulous and her dress is daringly elegant yet refined. The emerald-green ensemble had an interesting racer-back silhouette on the anterior, and at the angle she was photographed at we can see how curvaceous and feminine her figure really is. In this photo shoot, Scarlett showed off her inner sex kitten. She was photographed wearing a black, rouched bustier, and the photographer did a great job of capturing both her facial expression and the perkiness of her chest. She is also rocking a killer blowout, and with her hands in her hair, her pouty lips, and those heavy-lidded eyes—yowza. We can definitely see a lot of guys using this photograph as a computer desktop wallpaper. This is Scarlett — the sexy siren. This color just makes everything about her pop, from her skin to her lips to her hair. The sides of the collar were slightly ruffled, and the plunging scoop helped to bring more attention to her bosom. She also had tighter curls in her hair than we usually see. It was clear that she looked perfectly ready for her close-up! After seeing this photo, we can definitely say that red should be her go-to dress hue. First of all, Scarlett is totally working the camera. Yet she is also giving us a run for our money, because she looks utterly to die for in this photo. Her dress only covers about half of her chest and features a cool cape-like accessory on the back. The transparent fabric its made of adds even more allure. What a hot and steamy photo shoot! This time, however, we get a frontal view of the Hollywood actress. Her face is so serene and ravishing that she is basically radiating off of the camera lens. Everything is perfectly in place, from her sweeping curls, to the drapery on her dress, to her front and center chest. What a great way to start off Granted, Scarlett Johansson is an easy celebrity to photograph since she is so beautiful, but this photo series was definitely one of the best. Once again, she excelled with her fashion sense. We loved this dress the first time and we love it even more after seeing it again. We get a new angle this time as Scarlett looks to be greeting some friends or acquaintances at a Hollywood event. She is sitting down and has her legs crossed, and appears to be leaning forward a bit. A seasoned photographer saw this opportunity and snapped it! The result is one perfect picture of boob spillage. Seriously, she has it all on display, if there was any more and she would have a nip slip. A for effort and A for the landing! The actress was lounging on her side, and the corset-bustier lingerie that she is wearing helps to accurately show off her perfect hourglass figure. This photo shoot also helped to give us a great view of how well-endowed she is. Somehow, Scarlett is able to be undeniably sexy without going totally nude. This lingerie piece still had her covered up in spots, but this is a photo that would work stunningly as a pin-up. She was certainly ready for her close-up!
