The Template links alchemical ceremony with brain chemistry, bio-circuitry, the endocrine system, DNA, the archetypal arena and the morphogenetic field to reveal the holonomic system of creation which births and binds the Human hologram.

Enter the letters shown above: Awakening the Light Body Matrix The activation of the sustained reconnection of 33 circuits of Human bio-circuitry via a resonant response to the synergy of the geometric and sonic codes of creation. We are the amalgamation of various visible and invisible energy systems that together generate the Human hologram. The primary system that supplies this unit with the energetic nature of Creative Intelligence that births the field is the circuitry system. At this time the circuitry system is considerably less than optimal. The fact that out of 3 billion base pair chemicals in the Human gene code only 60million are active and that we only use a fraction of our brain capacity are manifest signs that point to Human genetic modification. Built upon the laws of resonant harmonics, creating synergy with the vibratory infrastructure of your dormant DNA, The Template is a transcendent model that offers the un-interpreted, uncensored energetic truth of Creation, delivered by the simple reconnection of electromagnetic energy via bio-circuitry. Conscious communion with sacred geometry is a fundamental aspect of our evolutionary awakening. The reconnection of circuitry revitalizes the endocrine system and renders us able to receive, translate and utilize the full spectrum geometries of light that we may ready ourselves for the luminous data density offered by the portal of opportunity in order to collectively stabilize a new matrixâ€¦ a paradigm resonant with the integrity of light. A visual introduction to the Template - part 1 More videos available here in the Video Gallery. The New Paradigm As this present cycle runs its course to begin its ascent upon the next evolutionary spiral, the structure of the material field is showing signs of extreme decay. Individually and collectively we face the deterioration of our socio-sexual, political, and religious structures, and witness the proliferation of environmental degradation, war, famine and genocide across our Earth. There is a renewed collective calling to achieve a level and strength of personal transformation that ultimately impacts the global reality, a form of transformation that provides both deliverance from personal suffering and a clear understanding of how changes at the fulcrum point of individual awareness will impact the morpho-genetic influence vital to sustainable enlightenment and conscious evolution on a planetary scale. At this time of challenge, we now have an opportunity to align with the higher physics of creation to resurrect that most awesome piece of biotechnology: This will require the acknowledgment of our totality. Not only are we physical, mental and emotional beings, we are electromagnetic beings. Our ability to activate and integrate the fullness of these codes is a question of circuitry. The Template links alchemical ceremony with brain chemistry, bio-circuitry, the endocrine system, DNA, the archetypal arena and the morphogenetic field to reveal the holonomic system of creation which births and binds the Human hologram. The Template ceremony codes are an intelligent patterning of information that acts as an alchemical catalyst to activate dormant Human potential, initiating a journey of healing, forgiveness, remembrance, resurrection and, ultimately, transcendence of the dualistic mortal paradigm: As units of Human bio-circuitry, we are the culmination of a variety of life-force energy systems. The new frontier of healing lies in the knowledge that these systems are not fully connected. The energetic nature of consciousness that fosters all life is integrated by the Human heart-body-mind via bio-circuitry. The circuitry is the delivery system that integrates this Source Intelligence, translating this energetic electromagnetic life-force into the bio-informational matrix that is the vibratory infrastructure of the Human hologram. As a result of the genetic modification of our DNA the Human bio-computer is not capable of sustaining its molecular structure in a state of super-consciousness. The reconnection of circuitry restores the fundamental energy supply intrinsic to the Human ability to achieve and sustain conscious evolution into the new paradigm. This electromagnetic energy is integrated into the body through meridians or circuits, to be translated by the chakra centres into bio-informational signals for the endocrine system to utilize. The circuitry does not begin and end around the Human energy field. Each circuit is spherical and intersects with another spherical field of conscious energy, which, in turn, interacts with another, as part of an electromagnetic intelligence system that encompasses all - from the subatomic to the multi-universal, the wheels within wheels. Each sphere of consciousness is a holonomic fractal of Source Intelligence. The Source is everywhere. The more circuitry the Human entity is able to utilize within its computational system, the more Source Intelligence it is able to integrate and synthesize, and the more conscious and enlightened that entity becomes. Enlightenment is not simply a state in which the intellect is in possession of questions and answers - it is a state of being in which the full spectrum of Source Consciousness is integrated, synthesized and crystallized into the incarnate body presence, understood in the mind, felt in the heart and made tangible in the body. The Science of Transcendence As we witness the acceleration of the deterioration of our environment, social, political and economic structures, it is beneficial to understand the evolutionary influences that are driving this age. By so doing we can consciously implicate ourselves within the phenomenal opportunity for transmutation that is available during this phase of culmination. It is the transitional phase of conception and deterioration in any cycle which creates the powerful frictions that open the portals for transcendence. It is during the degenerative phase that the rotting fruit falls away and the new seed is expelled. The global crisis is not a dark event but a redistribution of natural power created by an immense influx of light. This influx is being created by the maturing influences of a solar system that is itself reaching higher and higher states of cosmic comprehension, transmitting to Earth and its inhabitants ever new spectrums of radiance data - light. It will be the degree to which we are able to translate and utilize this light code that will allow us to break the barriers of illusion set by this dualistic paradigm and the genetic modifications that are in resonance with it. It is because of this light influx that we are now able to answer the three most fundamental questions that define us as conscious Human entities: Where am I from? Why am I here? No living thing within creation exists in isolation. The interconnected, interactive, co-creative individual system of each entity is a fractal of the one holographic system that encompasses the subatomic to the multi-universal. Transcendence requires the resurrection of the dormant components within the Human hologram, to be re-embraced into the governing mechanism of the universal holography. The Template Ceremonies The Template reconnection process restores 33 bio-circuits, through a spoken code and the presence of items of sacred geometry. It takes place in six phases in a series of coded ceremonies: C5, The Temple of Time: The design and progression of the ceremonies are combination codes which, through resonance, build synergy with the vibratory structure of the DNA, reconnecting bio-circuitry.. This initiates the return to wholeness, re-establishing our true identities and freeing us from the fear-based matrix that rules our deepest behavioural patterns, and connecting us to a new consciousness grid. The Soul Covenant The Human Soul Covenant contains a holonomic symbiotic code in which the Human is the sensory organ of planetary transcendence as Earth is the sensory organ for Human transcendence. The codes of the Template ceremonies resurrect our ability to translate and utilize, through our physical bodies, the language of light " to achieve, literally, en-light-enment. The Template is not for a spiritual elite but for everyone of any age, race or creed who wonder what is happening to our mother planet and to those who are sustained by Her: A Holonomic Model of Transcendence and many videos and CDs, received and codified the Template mandate over many years in the service of all Humanity.

Because of this, Egyptians surmised that a shadow contains something of the person it represents. Through this association, statues of people and deities were sometimes referred to as shadows. The shadow was also representative to Egyptians of a figure of death, or servant of Anubis , and was depicted graphically as a small human figure painted completely black. For example, part of the Book of Breathing , a derivative of the Book of the Dead , was a means to ensure the survival of the name. A cartouche magical rope often was used to surround the name and protect it. Conversely, the names of deceased enemies of the state, such as Akhenaten , were hacked out of monuments in a form of damnatio memoriae. Sometimes, however, they were removed in order to make room for the economical insertion of the name of a successor, without having to build another monument. The greater the number of places a name was used, the greater the possibility it would survive to be read and spoken. For the French hip-hop artist, see Akhenaton rapper. It was associated with thought, but not as an action of the mind; rather, it was intellect as a living entity. In this sense, it even developed into a sort of ghost or roaming dead being when the tomb was not in order any more during the Twentieth Dynasty. Egyptians conceived of an afterlife as quite similar to normal physical existence " but with a difference. The model for this new existence was the journey of the Sun. At night the Sun descended into the Duat or "underworld". Eventually the Sun meets the body of the mummified Osiris. Osiris and the Sun, re-energized by each other, rise to new life for another day. For the deceased, their body and their tomb were their personal Osiris and a personal Duat. For this reason they are often addressed as "Osiris". They helped people avoid the perils of the afterlife and also aided their existence, containing spells to ensure "not dying a second time in the underworld", and to "grant memory always" to a person. In the Egyptian religion it was possible to die in the afterlife and this death was permanent. The tomb of Paheri, an Eighteenth dynasty nomarch of Nekhen , has an eloquent description of this existence, and is translated by James Peter Allen as: Your life happening again, without your ba being kept away from your divine corpse, with your ba being together with the akh You shall emerge each day and return each evening. A lamp will be lit for you in the night until the sunlight shines forth on your breast. You shall be told:

Chapter 3 : How to sell your soul to the Devil, or anyone else | Bill of Sale

Integrated intelligence enables not only a connection to the wisdom of the universe but also access to your soul template, revealing your self-limiting behaviors, karmic issues from past lives, and soul aptitudes--the abilities at which you excel.

Learn about the conversation included with this workshop Historical trauma is the trauma that occurs in families and is then passed on to the following generation unless the trauma, or soul wounding, is dealt with. After years of research and clinical experience with diverse populations, Eduardo Duran has come to understand that wounding of the soul has been endured by most people in the world. The lessons he has learned from this work are relevant to the majority of people seeking help in therapy. Effects of the Colonial Template on Indigenous Peoples This discussion focuses on how colonialism and historical trauma have impacted indigenous peoples. The workshop draws parallels between Native Americans and African Americans by analyzing the soul wound through indigenous epistemologies. Archetypal ideas are also integrated into the discussion in order to facilitate cultural bridging. A grounded preparation of the therapist is part of the workshop discussion, as well as relevant case material. Archetypal concepts are used in order to facilitate understanding within a Western framework. Eduardo Duran, PhD, has been working as a clinical psychologist for more than two decades. Much of his clinical and research work has concentrated on working with the legacy of historical trauma. The lessons learned from this work are relevant to most people presenting with therapeutic issues. Duran has served as a professor of psychology in several graduate settings and continues to teach and lecture in community settings all over the world. Born in northern New Mexico, Duran relocated to California with his family at age He worked in the fields as a migrant farm worker. At age 17 he enlisted in the U. Navy, where he served for 6 years on board submarines and other vessels during the Vietnam war. Once he was discharged he became interested in psychology and began his studies, while working for the Navy as an engineering psychologist. His path took a turn after his last visit with his grandfather, changing career trajectory to become a clinical psychologist. He attained his PhD degree and has since worked in community settings until the past year. Presently, he is in private practice and consulting. A, CMH, believes in the innate wisdom and intelligence of everyone to be their own healer. She became a clinician to bring culturally responsive services to her local community and has worked closely with consumers and indigenous practitioners to help redefine community mental health practices.

Soul vessel is an aquired template that can be applied to any corporeal, living creature. The process is most often used on those who are, for whatever reason, close to premature death and requires three stages to be completed.

So before you learn how to sell your soul to the Devil, here are a few reasons why you should. Fame This is perhaps the most common reason people offer their spirits to Satan. So many celebrities have made deals with the Devil for their fame, both literally and figuratively. Just ask Brigadier General John Moulton. Talent Ever wonder how goofy celebrities and tone deaf musical acts got so famous? Looks and Youth A sad truth of human existence is the brevity of our youth. It seems as soon as we are strong and wise enough to seize the day, nature kicks in, and our looks, wits, and stamina precipitously decline. The Devil is certainly willing to indefinitely extend your stay on this mortal coil, but make sure you read the small print. The Prince of Darkness is prone to caveats that could have you begging for a quick and merciful end. If your heart and soul are being ripped to shreds anyway, why not just hand it over for the sweet caress of your beloved? If love is what you desire, get your Soul Bill of Sale ready. How to sell your soul to the Devil—or anyone else Be a lawyer Perhaps the most common way people sell their souls today is to enter into a career in law. Even more disturbing is the long, long list of people wrongfully convicted of crimes, with some people even being wrongfully executed. Who are the folks behind these errors in our justice system? You guessed it — lawyers. He revealed to his lawyers the location of two further missing bodies. Unfortunately, there is just so much pressure to win win win. Ethical considerations often fall by the wayside and Old Scratch is able to weasel his way into the hearts and minds of otherwise well-meaning attorneys. Two lawyers knew and kept it a secret — for 26 years. Thus, you have a whole industry of suits not only of accusing the innocent and defending the guilty, but also taking the hard-earned property of others based on technicalities, lobbying the government on behalf of monied interests, and propagating systems of inequality. And do you know how expensive law school is? And before they know it, they are but a husk of the young, idealistic student they once were. Instead of you wading into the morally suspect waters of the judicial system, just download documentation from us and avoid the inevitable run-in with Lucifer or his suit-adorned minions. Not only that, but the common defenses against spiritual destruction — love, family, recreation, self-care — are all eventually stripped away as the workload increases and the pressure is piled on. Satan now owns you. Get married Speaking of reliable approaches, tying the knot is a foolproof way to get your soul off your hands. The difference between this method and most of our other routes for soul-selling, however, is the buyer. Having to solicit campaign contributions is a big motivator for the sale of a soul. The whole campaign system is really just one corrupt, hot mess of quid pro quo deals. Furthermore, while only some politicians get called out as flip-floppers, the vast majority at one point or another change their stance on an issue to secure more votes. Politicians have to appeal to as broad a demographic as possible as well. Satan has been in close contact with world leaders for millennia. Finally, while all of these indicators of the soullessness of politicians require no supernatural intervention from the Antichrist, there is strong evidence that Satan has been in close contact with world leaders for millennia, and probably still is today. Seance A seance is a time-honored way for summoning spirits from the beyond. They will be your medium, but you need at least two other people to participate. Some common ones include skulls, any number of candles divisible by three, pentagrams, bibles, etc. For Old Scratch himself we recommend using the Invocation to Satan, as well as the method for summoning Azazel, both of which are outlined in greater detail below. Another tried and true seance method is to use a Ouija board. Recite the Invocation to Satan For the Invocation of Satan, we recommend checking out this sweet Angelfire site that walks you through the process and even gets you ready for the advanced version. Just to give you a primer though: Then candles black or blue ones! After Beelzebub shows up, get down to soul business with your Bill of Sale. Summon Azazel As we mentioned, summoning Azazel is a solid way of starting a soul transaction. Depending on who you ask, Azazel is either another name for the Devil, a different iteration of the same being, or an entirely different entity, albeit nearly as powerful. This dude is real serious about his black magic Conduct a Black Mass Another particularly powerful method for summoning demons is by conducting and reciting the Black Mass. There is historical evidence for lurid, orgy-filled ceremonies that made a mockery of traditional Latin Mass. Satan can be, unsurprisingly, kind of a jerk, and some of his demonic servants are much more chill. Sallos rides a crocodile like a boss and has a reputation for being a matchmaker or at the very least, convincing the apple of your eye to dig you back. Where and when to sell your soul It looks nice now, but just wait til midnight! Technically, you can sell your soul wherever you set up your seance or summoning ceremony, but there are some locales that seem to add a dash of witchcraft and heft. Lonely crossroads on a lonesome highway, stroke of midnight Like with the South, a lot of soul sales seem to go down at crossroads! at midnight. This is how Robert Johnson did it – all he did was show up, have the Devil tune his guitar, and he became a blues guitar legend. The problem with using a crossroads is reliability. It worked for Mr. Does it need to be the same intersection as the Johnson deal? Could it be any secluded crossroads? Do you get bonus points for doing it in the South? And how did the Lord of the Flies know where to meet Johnson? Gates of Hell If you are trying to make a deal with the Devil, a good place to find him is at his front door. If you have a soul to sell, consider making the trek to one of the gates of the foul pit: The Seven Gates of Hell in Hellam Township, Pennsylvania Hellam Township, PA – by Smallbones The story goes, there used to be a mental institution in the area that burned down, killing patients in what seemed to be hellfire. Seven gates or doorways from the facility remained, now isolated in the woods outside the township, but only visible at night. If you are able to locate all seven and cross their thresholds, you will emerge through the seventh gate into the bowels of Hell. Be careful though, residents very much dislike tourists attempting to commune with the Devil and have been known to call the police. In , a crater sunk into the earth, and there was a massive natural gas leak. Geologists decided to light it on fire to prevent the spread of methane gas, and it has stayed lit ever since. True, there is no proof that Beelzebub has ever used the portal personally, but a fiery pit leaking poison gas from the earth? The area is charred and ashen, and the Sanzu river running nearby is said to be the boundary between the realms of the living and the dead. If you happen to be in the Land of the Rising Sun and need to get in touch with Lucifer, this is your spot. Furthermore, the caldera is pocked with sulphuric hot springs and bubbling pits. And just for an added touch of creepy, visitors leave clothes and toys for deceased children, hoping the items assist the souls in making it to Heaven above. The site was built to worship the Roman god of the underworld, Pluto, who we know was an ancient interpretation of the Dark Lord. Furthermore, the entrance to the cave was destroyed by Christians in the 6th century, so there was clearly some hot demon action coming out of the old temple. Because it was recognized by the Romans who really knew their pagan business and Christians for being an entrance to the underworld, we highly recommend commencing your sale of soul transaction here. Fengdu is years old and is a corporeal representation of Hell, littered with statues of punished souls and judging demons. Starbucks A lonely aisle at Walmart Craigslist. We recommend Walpurgis Nights , also known as Witches Sabbath. So when are these evenings, exactly? We particularly like Samhain, better known as Halloween, but really, any of these dates make sense for some good old fashioned demon worship. Determining how much your soul is worth We did a valuation for our own souls. We here at LegalTemplates. There are other considerations, however: Finally, Satan is obviously a capitalist, so he follows the law of supply and demand. Christianity is the largest major religion, so Christian souls have a lower sticker value than, say, that of a Zoroastrian. Because you know the Devil wears a business suit. According to The Charlie Daniels Band, a young man from Georgia was minding his own business practicing his fingering when the Angel of the Bottomless Pit laid down the gauntlet. Satan is not above cheating because duh Another way to get Beelzebub to cancel a contract is to beat him in cards, preferably poker. Work as a non-profit lawyer Yeah, you get your soul back, but you also get to handle a ton of paperwork all by yourself. Some attorneys eventually go to work for noble causes, like environmental advocacy organizations or the Southern Poverty Law Center. Lawyers who go this route often regain their innate humanity and are able to dodge eternal damnation. Contest ownership in court Lawyers are also able to argue their case in court. Because Lucifer is judge and his own advocate, and he stuffs the jury with pro-damnation demons. Satan has the best legal team because almost all lawyers work for him. Exorcism If you insist on being a stick in the mud about the whole thing, you could request an exorcism. These services are increasingly rare as the religious reject the idea of demonic possession, but there are still some solid exorcists out there. Get a girl to stick up for you With the exception of Eve, Satan has never been great with girls. People who have successfully sold their souls Robert Johnson Robert Johnson is perhaps the most famous and one of the most important blues musicians to ever live. He also reportedly sold his soul for mastery of guitar, at midnight, at lonely crossroads in Dockery Mississippi. There are plenty of skeptics and naysayers out there, and some who say the story was actually about Tommy Johnson. Still, we gotta believe it because, just listen to him go man:

Chapter 5 : Home | Soul Template

Your Soul Template is the body of information encoded It includes Soul at the core of your soul, including its essential energy Issues, the Karmic Record patterns. The Soul Template consists of three aspects.

Read More here Sacred Geometry Geometric forms describe the growth and integration of all systems, from the binding forces within atoms to the shapes and composition of galaxies. Sacred geometry is the configurative language of the elemental components of the creative force that gives birth to all life and, as such, it offers a direct conduit to Prime Consciousness to Source. This language bypasses the dogmatic perimeters of the intellect to transmit knowledge that exists beyond the reach of religion, philosophy, belief or disbelief. Sacred geometry is a pure language that cares not for the country of your birth, the colour of your skin or your cultural beliefs. It expresses the interrelating harmony that lies at the heart of creation, transmitting patterns of frequency which resonate with our original Human blueprint. Sacred Geometry Within the Template Model In the Template model, sacred geometry is identified not only as the infrastructure of all manifestation within the unified field: As the very language used to construct all of creation it follows that sacred geometry functions as the core component within the alchemy of resurrection. The vibratory infrastructure of this blueprint is written in the geometric language of light. In the Template ceremonies, stunning pieces of sacred geometry are physically present in the alchemical experiences which reconnect 33 circuits. This results in the activation and integration of the dormant genetic material that will resurrect the light-body matrix of the original Human blueprint. The design and progression of the pieces of sacred geometry used in the Template ceremonies are resonant with the various aspects of the holonomic agreement that lies at the heart of the Human masterpiece. As this agreement is awakened through frequency resonance with the alchemical ceremonial code, the circuits are reinstated. Each of the pieces of sacred geometry corresponds to an aspect of the holonomic symbiotic code of the Covenant, in which the Human design is the sensory organ for planetary ascension and Earth is the counter resonant organ for Human ascension. The Science of Transcendence We have become aware, through alternative healing methods, of our electromagnetic energy fields and the importance of our neurobiology and biochemistry. Through this and the discoveries made in the area of genetics, we are becoming aware that there is a science to spirituality and that our chemistry affects our consciousness. Taking this further, we are now making the connection between the mutant state of our DNA and the global insanities of war, genocide and endless Human suffering. As Humanity awakens to a new body-awareness we are driven to gain mastery over our own inner workings and to discover how we interact with and co-create the reality in which we find ourselves. Instead of searching for the out-of-body experience in order to realize our spiritual identity, we are beginning to understand that our physical being is the manifestation of that identity and to realize that the physical vehicles we embody will allow us to transcend this fear-based reality and create, through the resurrection of our full Human potential, a new paradigm - a golden age. Our communion with sacred geometry is a fundamental aspect of our evolutionary awakening. Embedded in the Human matrix - written in the sacred geometric language of light and out of reach of any form of manipulation is the Soul Covenant that is our original blueprint. The primary infrastructure of all existence is light all is light all is geometry. As we interact with sacred geometric forms, we are communing with the higher creation frequencies that resonate with our original blueprint, as it existed prior to the genetic modification of Human DNA. One of the most important discoveries of the new quantum physics is the holographic nature of the universe. Each Human is a fractal aspect of this universal holography. The geometric language of light that forms the underlying matrix of this hologram is the alphabet of the new paradigm. Due to its genetic modification, the present manifestation of the Human race is not representing the full potency of that hologram. However, the blueprint for the immortal template still exists within the Soul Covenant embedded in the Human matrix. As we commune with sacred geometric forms, we interact with their fields of informational influence. Their energetic radiance emits a frequency that communes with the vibratory infrastructure of our original blueprint in search of a like frequency with which to resonate. Through this resonant feedback, the structural integrity of the original Human template, present in the Soul Covenant, is reinforced. When a specific design and progression of these geometric creation codes is ceremonially united with a consciously spoken sonic resonant code, the library of remembrance in the cerebral cortex is engaged and a neuro-chemical alchemy is created that activates coherence between the vibratory infrastructure of the Soul Covenant and the superstructure of the physical body. This coherent data-flow of the original Human identity, prior to genetic modification, is delivered as energetic information in the form of electromagnetic circuitry to be integrated by the heart-body-mind system. Thus the Human body is the sacred chalice of the Source made manifest. Your body is the physical matrix of your divine intelligence. As omniscient awareness expands through the download of natural divine knowledge, via the electromagnetic delivery system of circuitry, your physical matrix alters accordingly.

Geometry and the Redefinition of God in the Human Psyche The erroneous definition of God is the most malevolent and powerful manipulation of consciousness. This mycelium of deception has been perpetrated in a myriad of ways, including the manipulation of historic recall and the insertion of a false ancestry. This false inheritance has entrenched within the psyche the archetypal duality of the demonic and angelic models, creating conflict on the deepest strata of Human behavioural reference and resulting in deep wounds of separation, spiritual abandonment and betrayal. The influx of geometric Source Intelligence delivered by the bio-circuitry reconnected by the Template ceremonies activates our core identity. It initiates the cleansing of the archetypal arena, not by reprogramming it, but by attuning the heart-body-mind system to the resonance of the geometric Soul Covenant, the original Human blueprint which is embedded in the Human matrix. These circuits, once reconnected, energetically dissolve the shame and guilt-based constructs of the predominant ideology. Erroneous definitions of God, entrenched by the indoctrination of religions, which have reigned supreme within the archetypal arena of the Human psyche, are replaced with the energetic truth of creation, a truth that is not imposed upon the individual through the inaccuracies of historically gathered data, but which unfolds as a result of organic alignments instigated by the energetic reunion with Source. The Sacred Geometry of The Template

The alchemical nature of the Template ceremonies, by utilizing both male and female geometry, holds the frequency harmonic of the activating life-directive that is transmitted from the Heart of the Cosmos and the receptive integrating pulse that emanates from the crystalline core of planet Earth. This code geometrically replicates the tantric courtship of creation. The individual Human unit of circuitry is the conjugal mediator of these two creation frequencies, resurrecting the Human body-temple as the sacred enclosure for the sacred wedding of the Mother of Form and the Father of Consciousness. The Template coded ceremonies bypass the historical model of cultural behaviour and the patriarchal language that it employs to transcend the dualistic framework of present day psychology, escorting you into the arena of alchemical experience, initiating the healing of the wounds of abandonment and betrayal that have dogged the Human race. Healing occurs through the reconnection of the Human electromagnetic field to the magnitude of the life impulse that emanates endlessly from Galactic Core. The embrace of the holonomic model that governs all of existence resurrects the potential for self-rejuvenation that is our natural state. We are an immortal race locked in a mortal paradigm. Through reconnection to the pure, energetic nature of Source Consciousness, via the reconnection of circuitry, the immortal core identity rises phoenix-like from the Soul Covenant to embrace the divine matrix of form that is the physical body, which defines the Human as an instrument of light and love for the Benevolence of Creation.

Sacred Geometry Within the Template Model In the Template model, sacred geometry is identified not only as the infrastructure of all manifestation within the unified field: it is also understood as the language of the Soul Covenant embedded in the Human matrix.
