

Chapter 1 : The Unstoppable Gospel - Lebanon Road church of Christ

The unstoppable worshipper lets nothing hinder them in their quest to glorify God. Whatever "goliaths" come their way, they walk out onto that worship battlefield and take their chances. Whatever "goliaths" come their way, they walk out onto that worship battlefield and take their chances.

We should act as a sign post to point everyone to Him. Also notice the typography of the land will have been changed. Peace on earth He shall judge between many peoples, and shall decide for strong nations far away; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore; Micah 4: The UN will never be able to bring lasting world peace, only Jesus can do this. God has a plan But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD; they do not understand his plan, that he has gathered them as sheaves to the threshing floor. The Lord is a God of strategy in war, God is not passive but has clear thoughts, plans and intentions, He remains in control. Earth belongs to God Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs bronze; you shall beat in pieces many peoples; and shall devote their gain to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth. Jesus birth prophesied But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose coming forth is from of old, from ancient days. He is from of old, this is a hint to His divine origin. And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth. Jesus our peace And he shall be their peace. When the Assyrian comes into our land and treads in our palaces, then we will raise against him seven shepherds and eight princes of men; Micah 5: The Anti Christ they shall shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod at its entrances; and he shall deliver us from the Assyrian when he comes into our land and treads within our border. Props taken away and I will cut off your carved images and your pillars from among you, and you shall bow down no more to the work of your hands; Micah 5: We must be careful of this, that we do not idolise our work, efforts or achievements. How have I wearied you? The gospel according to the Old Testament He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? Do Justice â€” We should do what is right and pursue justice on behalf of others, this can be in advocacy of the suffering church and in child sponsorship etc. Love kindness â€” This speaks to our character, we should walk with the fruit of the Spirit as mentioned in Galatians 5: Walk humbly â€” this speaks to our attitude and behaviour, we should walk in genuine humility of thought and action before God. Unsatisfied materialism You shall eat, but not be satisfied, and there shall be hunger within you; you shall put away, but not preserve, and what you preserve I will give to the sword. Relationship is key You shall sow, but not reap; you shall tread olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil; you shall tread grapes, but not drink wine. And Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well, Acts It is most likely that the Holy Spirit gave Paul this discernment and understanding. We also are men, of like nature with you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to a living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them. This happens so often, where people focus on and worship people rather than God. The unfortunate thing is that those receiving worship do not always have the purity of heart of Paul and Barnabas who tore their garments and rushed into the crowd crying out for the people to turn from this vanity to God. We must always remember that we are just sign posts to God, we are nothing in ourselves, no matter how God uses us. Paul makes the point of distinguishing God as the living God as opposed to a dead idol or fable. Also note in this case that they were taking on the prevailing religion in the pagan world. Finish the mission But when the disciples gathered about him, he rose up and entered the city, and on the next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe. Make Disciples But when the disciples gathered about him, he rose up and entered the city, and on the next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe. Through tribulation we enter strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God. Church structure And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed. Debate to the glory of God And after Paul and

Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and the elders about this question. We must be ready to debate, we cannot be passive and let every new idea, book etc. The first Church Council The apostles and the elders were gathered together to consider this matter. One in Christ and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. Our hearts are now cleansed by faith, the New Testament later calls it the circumcision of the heart rather than the body. Jesus alone could bear the weight of sin Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? Saved through grace But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will. It is good to see that from the earliest days of the church, reasoning and decision making was made in light of the word of God and not just current experience. Food and sex but should write to them to abstain from the things polluted by idols, and from sexual immorality, and from what has been strangled, and from blood. Prepared with the Old Testament For from ancient generations Moses has had in every city those who proclaim him, for he is read every Sabbath in the synagogues. No; he would pay attention to me. Trials purify But he knows the way that I take; when he has tried me, I shall come out as gold. For Job the word of God was more precious to him than natural food, the word of God is often spoken of as spiritual food. Jesus said that His meat was to do the will of the Father. God is unstoppable But he is unchangeable, and who can turn him back? What he desires, that he does. God fulfils and goes to work achieving what He desires. God is someone we should actually fear in light of His power and ability to exercise that power in judgement in this life and the next. Jesus warns us to fear Him in Matt

How is the change to be observed? Solitaire Dan Richbart was teaching his Battalion about survival in the Alaskan wilderness. Several hands went up, and many important things were mentioned, such as water, matches, etc. Then one young man in the back eagerly raised his hand. Dan replied, "A compass, food, and a deck of cards. Most of us would probably consider survival a good thing. But I desire to introduce to you this morning a different understanding of survival. I believe that the church is not designed to survive. I believe that the church is designed to do much more than thrive. In fact, I believe the church finds her strength and reason for being in service. The church is designed to serve. We are designed to make a difference in this world that is both revolutionary and transforming. There is a time in the life cycle of a church that it is vulnerable. Interestingly, it may not be when you think. Churches decline when things are going well. Success can become our enemy. For when we are successful, there is a great pull to play it safe and stay where we are. The problem, though, is that success is not attained by playing it safe. It is attained with risk and innovation. But when we become afraid to lose the success we have achieved, we abandon creativity in order to preserve what we have. And you know what? In the name of being committed to the purpose of the church, we end up not doing so, for in action, we commit to the institution instead. We stay with standardization over uniqueness. We prefer predictability over surprise. We covet comfort over service. We choose convenience over sacrifice. And because we have chosen preservation, we close ourselves to the outside world unless they agree to come in and be just like us. The boat comes near the island and the sailor gets out and greets the stranded man. It is interesting how we view church as something that should satisfy us according to our likes and dislikes. Each one of us needs to be confronted by this me included. When we fall into that type of thinking, we so much miss the point, becauseâ€ 2. The church is not about customer service. Too often and once would be too often , I have been told, or it has been insinuated, that I should take the church the way they want it to go, or else they are going elsewhere. This is a real problem for the American church. It is too easy to pick up and leave. If you are looking for me to satisfy you as a person, either you or I are in the wrong place.

Chapter 3 : Unstoppable God - Elevation Worship

The Unquenchable Worshipper issues a passionate call for a return to an unadulterated, first-love lifestyle of worship. In his first book release, respected worship leader and songwriter Matt Redman writes: "The revelation of God is the fuel for the fire of our worship."

Faced with opposition, danger or even death, they just keep going. The Three Hebrew Children Daniel 3 Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were sentenced to the fiery furnace when they refused to bow down the golden image erected by King Nebuchadnezzar. They made it absolutely clear that they would not compromise and maintained their covenant relationship with the God of Israel and refused to bow down and worship anyone other than YAHWEH. As unquenchable worshipers, their response to the king were consistent even to the point facing death. If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God whom we serve is able to save us. He will rescue us from your power, your majesty. They convinced king Darius to make it mandatory for all his subjects to worship him for the next 30 days and anyone caught worshipping anyone else must be thrown into a den of hungry lions. We read in Daniel 6: King David True worship often meets with opposition. Take the life of king David. His first triumph was a powerful public act of unstoppable worship. Then in came David - too small for a suit of armor, and as Saul told him, still only a boy. Goliath despise him v. The worship of God wins the day! But just before they stone him to death. God allows Stephen an amazing depth of revelation - perhaps to help this first Christian martyr stay strong to the end. The unstoppable worshiper lets nothing hinder them in their quest to glorify God. Whatever "goliaths" come their way, they walk out onto that worship battlefield and take their chances. They do not shrink back in times of trouble, but instead raise a spirited psalm of trust, obedient and praise! Powered by Create your own unique website with customizable templates.
